

Contents

List of illustrations	xi
Notes on contributors	xii
Abbreviations and acronyms	xix

Introduction: through a handbook: the study of EU-Russia relations	1
Tatiana Romanova and Maxine David

PART 1

Evolving relations 13

1 The history of Russia-European Union relations	15
Konstantin Khudoley and Maciej Raś
2 The dynamics of state and societal actors in Russia's policy on the EU	26
Tatiana Romanova
3 Intra-European Union dynamics: the interplay of divergences and convergences	37
Sandra Fernandes
4 The normative deadlock in EU-Russia relations: hegemony without influence	48
Viacheslav Morozov
5 Ideas and normative competition in EU-Russian relations	58
Joan DeBardeleben

PART 2

Theories, methods and learning 69

6 Realism and the study of EU-Russian relations	71
Nicholas Ross Smith and Anastassiya Yuchshenko

7	Power in EU-Russia relations: more than meets the eye Tom Casier	82
8	(Neo-)Institutionalism Natalia Zaslavskaya	93
9	Europeanisation Paul Flenley	105
10	Methods of economic analysis Vasily Astrov	116
11	Constructivism in the study of EU-Russian relations Petr Kratochvíl	129
12	The EU-Russia relationship through the lens of postcolonial theory Elena Pavlova	139
PART 3
	Political and security relations	149
13	The political and security relationship Dmitry Danilov	151
14	The EU and the Russian Federation and human rights: similar vocabularies, opposing grammars Rick Fawn	162
15	The human rights agenda in EU-Russia relations: from a political to politicised dialogue Larisa Deriglazova	173
16	Cyber security in EU-Russia relations Elena Chernenko	184
17	EU-Russia relations in Justice and Home Affairs: a mismatch between form and content? Anna A. Dekalchuk	195
18	The member states in EU-Russia relations: drivers of cooperation and sources of conflict Anke Schmidt-Felzmann	206

- 19 Legal approximation: the Russian perspective 217
Mark Entin and Paul Kalinichenko

PART 4

Economic relations 227

- 20 Russia-EU economic relations: from moderate pull to normative push? 229
Richard Connolly and András Deák
- 21 EU-Russia energy relations 241
Irina Kustova
- 22 Policy of sanctions in Russia-EU relations 252
Ivan Timofeev
- 23 EU-EAEU common economic space 263
Yuri Kofner and Dmitry Erokhin
- 24 EU-Russia relations in the science and technology field: the persistence of the legal framework in the context of selective engagement 275
Paul Kalinichenko

PART 5

Social relations 287

- 25 Civil society in EU-Russia relations 289
Elena Belokurova and Andrey Demidov
- 26 Building trust through academic cooperation? 300
Larisa Deriglazova and Sirke Mäkinen
- 27 EU-Russia cultural relations and identity politics 312
Liubov Fadeeva
- 28 Unsocial media in the EU and Russia 323
Maxine David
- 29 Epistemic communities in EU-Russia relations: a dialogue
 of the deaf? 335
Sabine Fischer

PART 6

Regional relations

345

- 30 EU, Russia and the question of Kaliningrad 347
Pertti Joenniemi
- 31 The Northern Dimension 356
Dmitry A. Lanko
- 32 EU-Russian cross-border cooperation, its instruments and programmes 366
Gleb Yarovoy
- 33 Russia and the EU in the Arctic 379
Alexander Sergunin
- 34 From a 'common' to a 'contested' neighbourhood: connecting levels of analysis in EU-Russia interaction 392
Laure Delcour

PART 7

EU, Russia and global governance

403

- 35 Russia in the liberal world order 405
Maxine David and Ruth Deyermond
- 36 EU-Russia-US relations: diverging visions on European security 417
Maria Raquel Freire
- 37 Russia and the EU in Asia 428
Vasilii Kashin
- 38 The EU, Russia and the Middle East 439
Tuomas Forsberg
- 39 EU-Russia relations in multilateral governmental frameworks 449
Elena Kropatcheva
- 40 Unrealised potential: the EU and Russia in regional multilateral institutions 460
Sergey Utkin

Index

471