But Mr. Oak and his family are not worried about living in their new house with a ghost. It is quite amusing - even when they clean the mysterious blood off the Honey Floor every day and it appears again the next morning!

The ghost belongs to old Mr. Oak. It is his duty to haunt the house, but the ghost can play very terrible tricks on him. What can be done to get rid of these awful Americans?

The Canterville Ghost continues the story of the Oak family. In the second story, Lord Arthur Savile Crime, Lord Arthur meets the rather unpleasant Mr. Hodges at one of Lady Windermere's parties, and his whole life changes. He was going to marry Sibyl Merton, one of the most beautiful girls in London. But now, since he can't marry the lovely Sybil, he has to marry someone else.

The third story, The Sphinx Without a Secret, is about the secret life of beautiful, mysterious Lady Almon. She lives in a house in the most expensive part of London, so why does she rent a room in a house in one of the poorer streets? What does she do there? Who does she meet?

And finally, the last story, Activities, gives you some ideas for projects to do with your family or friends. You can learn more about the author and his interesting past.
