

Contents

Part I Introduction

- 1 Introduction: School Policy Reform in Europe Between Transnational Alignment and National Contestation 3
John Benedicto Krejsler and Lejf Moos

Part II National Cases: Northwestern Europe

- 2 Danish School Policy: Remaining Nordic While Going Transnational. 27
John Benedicto Krejsler
- 3 England: Neo-Liberalism, Regulation and Populism in the Educational Reform Laboratory 47
David Hall
- 4 School Reform Policy and Governance in Germany Between National and Transnational Expectations: With Outlooks on Austria and Switzerland 71
Bettina-Maria Gördel and Stephan Gerhard Huber
- 5 Transnational Forces in Dutch Educational Policies and Practices 93
Theo Wubbels and Jan van Tartwijk

Part III National Cases: Southern Europe

- 6 French Education Policies and the PISA Paradigm: The Strong Republican State Absorbing External Influences 117
Romuald Normand
- 7 Changing School Policies in Italy: From Welfare Equity Model to the New Public Management Instrumentations. 139
Paolo Landri

8	Multi-scalar Interactions and Educational Reform: The Trajectory of School Policy in Catalonia Within the Spanish State	159
	Antoni Verger, Edgar Quilabert, and Mauro C. Moschetti
 Part IV National Cases: Central & Eastern Europe and the Western Balkans
9	School Policy and Reforms in Poland in the Light of Decentralisation: Between Democratisation and Centralisation.	187
	Joanna Madalińska-Michalak
10	Czech School Reforms: Between East and West	213
	Petr Novotný, Dominik Dvořák, and Michaela Dvořáková
11	Education Policies and Reforms in Slovenia and Croatia: Shared History, Diverging Paths	237
	Eva Klemenčič Mirazchiyski, Urška Štremfel, Nikša Alfrević, and Ljiljana Najev Čačija
 Part V Discussions
12	Ever-Morphing Relations Between the Global, Supranational and the National in Schooling Policy: A Reflection on Some European Cases.	263
	Bob Lingard
13	Europe as the Exterior Interiorized in the Infrastructures of Policy	281
	Thomas S. Popkewitz
14	Discussion: The Importance of Context in European School Policy Reforms	303
	Lejf Moos and John Benedicto Krejsler	