

ARTICLES

- Domestic Workers, the 'Family Worker' Exemption from Minimum Wage, and Gendered Devaluation of Women's Work Natalie Sedacca 771
- The Influence of the EU on UK Labour Law—Before and After Brexit Phil Syrpis 802
- Labour Protection of Platform Workers in China: Legal Innovations and Emerging Trends Zengyi Xie 831
- Modern Slavery and Directors' Disqualification: A Convergence of Opportunity and Challenge Blanca Mamutse 855
- Undermining the Role of Women in the Economy: The Interplay Between Paid Work and Unpaid Care Work in India Neha Vyas 904
- Migrant Workers and Wage Theft: Is Legal Action an Effective Form of Collective Action? Michelle O'Sullivan and Juliet MacMahon 927

RECENT CASES

Edited by A.C.L. Davies and Alan Bogg

NOTE

- Uber BV v Aslam*: '[W]ork relations ... cannot safely be left to contractual regulation' Jeremias Adams-Prassl 955

EUROPEAN DEVELOPMENTS

Edited by Deirdre McCann

- Going Beyond the Right to Disconnect in a Flexible World: Light and Shadows in the Portuguese Reform Mauro Pucheta and Ana Cristina Ribeiro Costa 967