

Table of Contents

List of Figures	7
Introduction	13
1 Rosalba Carriera – An Independent Single Artist in Eighteenth-Century Venice	27
Carriera's Early Years	27
Influential Friends	35
The Beginning of a Career: Carriera, an Exceptional Venetian Miniature Painter	39
Carriera's Membership in the Accademia di San Luca in Rome	52
A New Reading of Carriera's World en miniature	61
Carriera's Portrait of Philip Wharton (1698–1731)	61
Carriera's Daring Eroticism	64
The Young Gardener in Munich	65
Miniature Mythologies	69
Carriera and the Sister Arts	78
Carriera's Lady Putting Flowers in her Hair	86
Carriera's Clients of Erotic Art	89
2 Carriera's Discovery of Pastel Painting	97
A Short History of Pastel Painting	97
Successful Ambassador of a Neglected Technique
Carriera in the Art World of Seventeenth- and Eighteenth-Century Venice	101
3 Carriera's International Network	115
Attacked by the British	115
Carriera and the French	119
German Travellers on the Grand Tour	120
The Italianate Climate in Düsseldorf	124
The House of Wittelsbach	126
The Importance of 'Owning a Carriera'	128
4 Carriera's Stay in Paris	135
Carriera's Admittance into the Académie de Peinture et de Sculpture	148

5	Carriera's Oeuvre in Pastel	165
	Carriera's Portraits within the Venetian Tradition	165
	From Unifying Formula to Character Studies	167
	The Importance of 'Being a Carriera'	171
	Carriera's 'Galleries of Beauty'	176
	Character Studies and Erotica	182
	Carriera's Favourite Pupil, Felicita Sartori	186
	Carriera's Young Lady with a Parrot	190
	Portrait or Allegory?	195
	Mythological Subjects	198
	The Reception of Carriera's Erotic Pastels	205
	Carriera's Religious Works for Dresden	213
6	The Single Woman, the Spinster	217
7	Carriera's Last Journeys – The End of an Envable Career	249
	Carriera in Modena	249
	Carriera in Vienna	251
	The End of an Envable Career	256
8	Carriera's Ways of Self-Fashioning	259
	Carriera's House on the Grand Canal, a Fashionable Space of Self-Representation	259
	Self-Fashioning through Self-Portraits	272
	Carriera's Earliest Self-Portrait	273
	Carriera's Self-Portrait in the Uffizi	274
	Carriera's Self-Portrait as Winter in Dresden, 1730–31	286
	Carriera's Self-Portrait in Old Age in Windsor Castle, c.1744	290
	Carriera's Self-Portrait in the Accademia in Venice, 1746	292
	Conclusion	297
	Bibliography	299
	Index of Names	319