

Contents

List of Tables	xi
List of Figures	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction
Introduction: Modernity and Its Discontents	I
Modernity's Paradox	I
Three Theories of Moral Regulation	5
The Withering Away of Civil Society	13
Moral Obligations: Inward and Outward	19
Market
1: The Dubious Triumph of Economic Man	27
Can Bourgeois Society Survive Bourgeois Man?	27
Morality and the Market	31
Markets and Social Constraint	36
Situated Freedom	42
Quasi-Modernity	49
2: Markets and Intimate Obligations	51
The Reach of the Market	51
Private Families	52
Community and the Market	60

	The Market and the Common Life	70
	In the Absence of Civil Society	75
3:	Markets and Distant Obligations	78
	Intimacy and Distance	78
	Generations and the Social Order	79
	The Fate of the Third Sector	86
	Loosely Bounded Culture and the Market	94
	The Market and the Social Fabric	100
	State
4:	The State as a Moral Agent	107
	Political Science as Moral Theory	107
	The Marriage of Liberalism and Sociology	109
	Collective Anomie	114
	A Republic of the Head	120
	Moral Neutrality and Social Democracy	126
5:	Welfare States and Moral Regulation	132
	A Scandinavian Success	132
	Public Families	133
	Social Networks and the Welfare State	142
	From Welfare State to Welfare State	151
6:	States and Distant Obligations	159
	The Social Democratic Generation: Before and After	159
	The Welfare State and Social Obligations	168
	Political Culture and the Welfare State	177
	Personal Responsibility and Moral Energy	180
	Society
7:	Sociology Without Society	187
	Beyond Political Economy	187
	Modernity or Morality?	190
	Three Sociologists in Search of Society	193
	Sociological Ambivalence	206

8: The Social Construction of Morality	212
Moral Selves	212
Nonheroic Morality	220
Rule Following, Rule Making	226
Toward a Moral Sociology	233
9: The Gift of Society	237
The Breakdown of the Moral Consensus	237
Markets, States, and New Moral Issues	241
Joining, Waiting, Leaving	246
Ecologies: Natural and Social	256
Notes	263
Bibliography	315
Subject Index	357
Name Index	363