

Contents

1	Safety First	1
1.1	Patient Safety rounds	5
1.2	Safety at Point of Care: Safety Cross	6
	Reference	8
2	Prove Quality	9
2.1	Outcome Data Is the Most Important	11
2.2	Volume Data Reflect Quality	13
2.3	Present Complication Data, But Do It Right	14
2.4	Document Adherence to Guidelines	15
2.5	What About Quality Data in Psychiatry?	16
2.6	Help Patients Who Want a Second Opinion	16
2.7	The Importance of Respecting Patient Preferences	17
2.8	Physicians Doing Research Is a Quality Marker	18
2.9	Support Employees Who Want External Training	18
	Reference	18
3	Show Empathy	19
3.1	Empathy Is a Core Value for Hospitals	19
3.2	Be Aware of Your Behavior	20

3.3	The Hospital Is Not a Repair Shop: It Is All About Empathy	21
	Reference	21
4	Reduce the Administrative Burden	23
4.1	Organization: Chain of Command	24
4.2	Organization: Hospital Support Staff	28
4.3	Make the Administrative Staff Efficient	29
4.4	Power Up Your Routines	32
	4.4.1 Make the Meeting Agenda Efficient	32
	4.4.2 The "Must Have" Meetings	34
	4.4.3 Additional Meetings	37
4.5	Energize the Organization	38
	Reference	39
5	Take Control of Finances	41
5.1	Macro Perspective: Big Challenges	42
5.2	Core Curriculum of Hospital Finance	50
5.3	Capitation and Fee for Service	51
5.4	Hospital Payment Based on Diagnosis	53
5.5	Hospital Payment Based on Value	54
5.6	You Need to Read This Brief Theory	56
5.7	Know Your Metrics	57
5.8	The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly	58
5.9	Be Up to Date on Clinical Activity	61
5.10	Be Up to Date on Procedure Cost	62
5.11	Be Up to Date on Employee Numbers	63
5.12	Flat Budget Cuts Are Demoralizing	66
5.13	Keep Your Finger on the Pulse	66
5.14	The Role of the Finance Manager	66
5.15	Avoid Fragmentation of Responsibility	67
5.16	Hunt Down the Big Five	69
5.17	Doctors vs. Managers	77
5.18	Be Professional with Evidence-Based Medicine	79

5.19	New Expensive Technology: A Case for Bundled Payment?	81
5.20	A Leader Has Total Responsibility	82
5.21	Best Practice Budget Process	83
5.22	Manager Profiles and Budget	85
5.23	Have Responsibility Centers: Avoid Cost Centers	90
5.24	Running Hospital Means Running Business	92
5.25	How to Measure Hospital Productivity?	93
5.26	Optimize the Number of Nurses	94
5.27	Management and Financial Crisis	97
5.28	Avoid Outsourcing to Monopolies	98
5.29	Use Consultant Companies Only if You Know Where to Go	99
	References	99
6	How to Make Decisions	101
6.1	The Art of Making Decisions	102
6.1.1	The Big Decisions	105
6.2	The Power of Compassionate Leadership	107
6.3	World Café to Empower Decisions	108
6.4	Make Sure You Involve the Employees	110
6.5	Dialogue with the Labor Unions	111
6.6	Formal and Informal Leadership	112
	References	112
7	See Your Employees and Define Your Personal Added Value	113
7.1	Be Fair and Show Respect	114
7.2	Celebrate Achievements	114
7.3	See Your Employees When They Work	114
7.4	Listen More and Do It Right	115
7.5	Define Your Hospital's Core Values	116
7.6	Define Your Personal Added Value	116
7.7	Do Employee Pulse Surveys	118

8	Useful Tips for Becoming a Better Leader	119
8.1	Do You Really Need an MBA?	119
8.2	Does the Leader Need Medical Insight?	120
8.3	Improve Your Weak Points	120
8.4	Never Punish Collectively	120
8.5	When Employees Do Serious Errors	121
8.6	Don't Waste Time Checking Every Travel Bill	121
8.7	How to Dress	122
8.8	Be Friendly, But Not a Friend	122
8.9	Make Your Boss Shine	122
8.10	Minimize Bureaucracy	123
8.11	Open-Plan Office: A Health Hazard?	123
8.12	Negativity Is Like a Contagious Disease: Stop It	124
8.13	Loyalty Is as Fundamental as Honesty	124
8.14	The Right Attitude	125
8.15	Managing Prima Donnas	125
8.16	In-hospital Romance and Forbidden Love	125
8.17	Avoid Nepotism	127
8.18	#meetoo	129
8.19	Zero-Tolerance for Harassment	129
8.20	Show Respect for the Non-medical Personnel	130
8.21	Hiring and Dismissing People	130
8.22	Don't Let the HR People Pick Leaders	131
8.23	Support Employees When They Need You	132
8.24	Do Not Allow Administrative Staff Mess Up the Command Line	132
8.25	When You Need a Good Lawyer	133
8.26	When the Leader Takes It All	133
	References	134
9	How to Meet the Press	135
9.1	The art of Communication with Media	136
9.2	Be Prepared for Media Scandals	136
9.3	Tips and Pitfalls During TV Interview	138
9.4	The Art of Apologizing	138

10	How to Get Control Over Your Own Time?	141
10.1	Optimize e-Mail Handling	142
10.2	Get Rid of the Monkey	144
10.3	Delegate as Much as You Can, But Do It Right	146
	References	147
Glossary		149

Otto Armin Smiseth is MD, PhD, and Master of Health Administration. He is specialist in cardiology and internal medicine, with clinical training from hospitals in Norway and Canada. For 20 years, leader of several different clinical departments and divisions at Rikshospitalet and Oslo University Hospital and is immediate past Director of the Division of Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Diseases, Oslo University Hospital and University of Oslo, Norway. A key role in several hospital restructuring and merger programs. Has published several hundred international scientific articles and book chapters. Has invented and patented medical technologies. Has served as Secretary/Treasurer for the European Society of Cardiology. Has served as Chair of the European Education Committee in Cardiology and as responsible for the European Cardiology Guidelines Implementation program. Honorary Fellow of the American Society of Echocardiography. Honorary Member of several national cardiological societies. Member of the Norwegian Academy of Science and Letters. Has been Member of the Advisory Board of European Best Doctors. From 2007 to 2020, The Personal Physician to His Majesty King Harald V of Norway. Commander of The Royal