

Detailed Contents

Preface	v
Acknowledgements	ix
Table of Cases	xix
Table of Legal Instruments	xxxi
 1. The Changing Phenomenology of War and Terrorism	 1
I War and the Use of Terrorist Tactics	2
A Wars Involving Non-state Actors	2
B Terrorism as a Tactic of Warfare	5
II The Legal Regulation of War and the Problem of Terrorism	9
A The Concept of War and the Legal Regulation thereof (Jus ad Bellum)	10
i History of the Jus ad Bellum	10
ii The Use of Force under the UN Charter	12
a Armed Attack by a Terrorist Group: Security Council Resolution 1368 (2001) and the Right to Self-defence against Non-state Actors	14
b Armed Attacks Against 'Failed' States	16
c Anticipatory or Preventive Self-defence Against Potential Terrorist Threats	18
iii Redefining the Notion of War	20
B How Jus in Bello Considerations led to Defining a State of Armed Conflict	22
i History of the Jus in Bello	22
ii Defining Armed Conflict: the Quest for Objective Criteria	24
a Identification of Parties	26
b The Connection to Territory	29
c Relation of a Terrorist Attack to an Existing Armed Conflict	31
d The Beginning and End Points of Armed Conflict	33
e Intensity of Hostilities	35
iii Anti-terror Conventions and IHL	39

III	States of Emergency and Terrorist Threats	41
A	Distinguishing a State of Emergency from a State of Necessity	42
B	States of Emergency under Human Rights Treaties	43
i	The Scope of the Notion of States of Emergency	44
ii	The Proportionality Test to Assess Derogations	47
iii	Non-derogable Rights	48
iv	Procedural Obligations	51
C	Interrelationship between Applicable Rules of IHL and Human Rights Law During States of Emergency	53
IV	Conclusion	54
2.	International Armed Conflicts	55
I	Introduction	55
II	The Traditional Paradigm: the Geneva Conventions and Additional Protocol I	58
A	The Armed Conflict Requirement	64
B	State Involvement	66
III	Recent practice	73
A	Extraterritorial Enforcement Operations and Uses of Force in Situations Short of Armed Conflict	73
B	Use of Armed Force in a Foreign State's Territory not Controlled by that State	77
C	Occupation	82
IV	Conclusion	87
3.	Non-international Armed Conflicts	94
I	Introduction	94
II	The Changing Context of Internal Violence and the Use of Terrorism by Non-state Actors	96
III	Common Article 3 of the Geneva Conventions of 1949	102
A	Scope of Application	102
B	The Drafting History of Common Article 3	104
C	The Definition of Armed Conflict in the Geneva Convention's Preparatory Works	108
D	The Tadić Criteria for Armed Conflict and their Influence on Subsequent Practice	110
E	Interpretation of Common Article 3 by the United States Supreme Court in Hamdan	118

F	The Use of Force by Organs of the State as a Means to Distinguish Armed Conflict	126
G	'International Concern' as a Criterion for Establishing an Armed Conflict	129
H	The Interpretation of the Scope of Application of Common Article 3 and its Underlying Stakes	132
I	Minimum Standards of Humanity Applicable in all Circumstances	134
IV	Additional Protocol II Armed Conflicts	148
A	Material Field of Application	148
B	Scope of Application of Article 1(1)	151
i	A Conflict Involving the Armed Forces and Dissident Armed Forces or other Organised Armed Groups	151
ii	The Requirement of Responsible Command	152
iii	The Requirement to Control Territory	152
iv	The Requirement for Military Operations to be 'Sustained'	153
v	The Ability to Implement Humanitarian Protections	154
C	Practice	155
i	Chechnya	156
ii	Colombia	159
iii	Conclusions	163
4.	Conduct of Hostilities and Terrorist and Counter-terrorist Acts	164
I	Basic Rules and Principles of the Law of The Hague	166
A	Status of Unprivileged Combatants	169
II	Means and Methods of Warfare	174
A	Means of Warfare	174
B	Methods of Warfare	176
III	Protection of the Civilian Population	178
A	Immunity of the Civilian Population from Attack	178
i	Direct Participation in Hostilities	179
ii	Applying the Principle of Distinction to Non-State Actors	187
iii	Weapon Technology: 'Non-lethal' Weapons and the Use of Drones in Counter-terrorist Operations	188
B	Definition of Military Objective and the Principle of Proportionality	191
C	Prohibition of Attacks Intended to Spread Terror	196
D	Terrorism vs Guerrilla Warfare	199

E	Prohibition of Using Civilian Shields	201
F	Precautionary Measures	203
IV	Reciprocity	204
5.	Individual Criminal Responsibility for Acts of Terror or Terrorism	208
I	Terrorism as a War Crime	209
A	Historical Background	209
B	The Recognition of Terrorism as a War Crime
	Post-Nuremburg	214
C	The Galić Judgments of the ICTY	215
i	The Trial Chamber Judgment	215
ii	The Appeals Chamber Judgment	220
D	Assessing the Galić Precedent in Terms of its
	Determination of Customary International Law	222
E	The Meaning of 'Terror'	224
F	Jurisprudence of the Special Court for Sierra Leone	228
i	Brima, Kamara and Kanu Judgments (AFRC Case)	228
ii	Fofana and Kondewa Judgments (CDF Case)	233
iii	The Sesay, Kallon and Gbao Judgments (RUF Case)	237
G	The US Military Commission Act	242
II	Terrorism as a Crime Against Humanity	247
A	Historical Background	249
B	Elements of the Crime and the Meaning of a
	'Widespread or Systematic Attack'	252
C	The Requirement of an Attack upon the 'Civilian
	Population'	255
III	Terrorism as Genocide	257
A	The Use of Terror to Commit Genocide	257
IV	Terrorism as a Crime of Aggression	261
V	Terrorism as an International Crime per se	263
A	Rationale for International Terrorism to be Recognised as a Discrete International Crime	266
B	Definition of International Terrorism	269
i	Generic versus Enumerated Acts Approach	270
ii	The Requirement of an 'International' Element	273
iii	Whether a Political Motive is Relevant	275
iv	The Relationship with International Humanitarian Law	278
C	International Terrorism as a Crime under Customary
	International Law	281

6. Status, Detention and Treatment of Terrorist Suspects	286
I Status	286
A Combatants	287
B Civilians	294
II Status upon Capture	294
A Prisoners of War	294
B Civilian Detainees and Internees	301
i International Armed Conflict (IAC)	301
ii Non-international Armed Conflict (NIAC)	303
III Treatment/Detention	304
A Apprehension and Arrest	304
i Prisoners of War	304
ii Civilian Detainees and Internees	305
B Transfer	305
i Prisoners of War	306
ii Civilian Detainees and Internees	308
a IAC	308
b NIAC	311
IV Detention	317
A Grounds for Detention	317
i Prisoners of War	319
ii Civilian Detainees and Internees	326
a IAC	326
b NIAC	329
B Treatment While Detained	335
i Prisoners of War	336
a General Rules on Treatment	336
b Rules on Interrogation	338
c Judicial Proceedings	344
ii Civilian Detainees and Internees	346
a IAC	346
1 General Rules on Treatment	346
2 Rules on Interrogation	357
3 Judicial Proceedings	357
b NIAC	359
1 General Rules on Treatment	359
2 Rules on Interrogation	361

3	Judicial Proceedings	362
C	End of Detention/Repatriation	367
i	Prisoners of War	367
ii	Civilian Detainees and Internees	370
a	IAC	370
b	NIAC	370
V	Concluding Remarks	371
7.	Scope for Revision of IHL for the Regulation of Terrorism and Terrorist Acts	374
	Index	391