

Contents

Preface xi

Introduction: What is Antiliberalism? 1

Part I. The Antiliberals

1. Maistre and the Antiliberal Tradition 13
2. Schmitt: The Debility of Liberalism 37
3. Strauss: Truths for Philosophers Alone 61
4. MacIntyre: The Antiliberal Catechism 88
5. Anti-Prometheanism: The Case of Christopher Lasch 122
6. Unger: Antiliberalism Unbound 141
7. The Community Trap 176

Part II. Misunderstanding the Liberal Past

8. Antiliberals as Historians of Liberal Thought 187
9. The "Atomization" of Society? 190
10. Indifference toward the Common Good? 198
11. The Eclipse of Authority? 201
12. The Public Realm Sacrificed to the Private? 206
13. Economic Man? 211
14. The Selfishness of Rights? 224
15. Moral Skepticism? 232
16. The Crimes of Reason? 247
17. Antonym Substitution 253

Conclusion 257

Notes 267

Index 317