

Summary

Foreword..... 10

Introduction 11

1957-1962: The early years of the Conference of Local Authorities..... 13

First session of the Conference: Europe from the ECSC to Budapest..... 15

Towards a real “standing” conference..... 16

Some dominant themes of the 1960s: the ECSC, housing and town twinning..... 19

The 1970s: Towards a European definition of the regions 21

The Congress, a mover or a spectator of regionalisation? 23

◆ Culture is also the business of local and regional authorities..... 27

Gérard Baloup: The CLRAE has shown that there is no Europe without local democracy..... 28

From the 1980s to 1994: The advent of the European Charter of Local Self-Government..... 31

The 1980 convention gives a promising boost to transfrontier co-operation..... 32

The European Charter of Local Self-Government, cornerstone of local democracy in Europe..... 34

◆ The principal articles of the European Charter of Local Self-Government 36

The European Charter for Regional or Minority Languages..... 39

◆ European Charter for Regional or Minority Languages, excerpt from Article 7 of Part II..... 41

The European Urban Charter..... 41

- ◆ The city of the future as defined by the Urban Charter, Article 3, paragraph 5 42
- ◆ Devolution in Central and Eastern Europe: Poland's example 43

1994 to 2007: The Congress takes off 45

Two landmark actions: observing elections and monitoring local democracy 47

- ◆ Country specific reports 47

Monitoring local and regional democracy 48

Rinaldo Locatelli: "The destruction of the Berlin Wall and the Charter of Local Self-Government have shaped the present-day Congress" 50

The Charter of Regional Self-Government and the development of regional policies..... 52

- ◆ The European policy of the German Länder 54

A major project: foreigners' participation in local affairs 56

Young people's participation in local and regional life 57

- ◆ Excerpt from the preamble to the (revised) European Charter on the participation of young people in local and regional life... 58

The European Landscape Convention 59

An essential partner: the European Committee for Local and Regional Democracy (CDLR)..... 60

The Local Democracy Agencies and the NALAS and ENTO networks 62

Relations with the European Union: Committee of the Regions, and "RegLeg" 64

Testimonies of elected representatives belonging to the Congress... 65

Future prospects..... 71

Advancement of humanist values in Europe..... 73

- ◆ Excerpt from the Congress declaration against human trafficking.. 73

Adriatic, Baltic and Black Seas: a new generation of Euroregions... 74

The future of the Congress 75