

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Abbreviations	ix
Introduction	1
PART I: Liberalism, Libertarianism, and Economic Justice
1. Capitalism in the Classical and High Liberal Traditions	17
2. Illiberal Libertarians: Why Libertarianism Is Not a Liberal View	62
PART II: Distributive Justice and the Difference Principle
3. Rawls on Distributive Justice and the Difference Principle	107
4. Property-Owning Democracy and the Difference Principle	137
5. Private Law and Rawls's Principles of Justice	167
PART III: Liberal Institutions and Distributive Justice
6. The Social and Institutional Bases of Distributive Justice	203
7. The Basic Structure of Society as the Primary Subject of Justice	227

8. Ideal Theory and the Justice of Institutions	257
9. Constructivism, Facts, and Moral Justification	294
References	319
Index	327