

Table of contents

Foreword by the editors 5

Foreword..... 7
Wim van de Donk

Choosing a parliamentary ombudsman in the UK – How and who to appoint?..... 9
Gavin Drewry

EU’s supporting competencies and administrative cooperation in the TFEU 27
François Lafarge

The end of administrative appeal? The case of the Danish National Agency for Patients’ Complaints and Patients’ Rights 48
Inger-Marie Conradsen

The influence of Union law on national standing requirements in France, the Netherlands and Germany 62
Jan Robbe and Paulien A. Willemsen

Fighting administrative silence in European and Slovene law and practice 79
Polona Kovač

Actions for annulment before CJEU after the Lisbon Treaty:
changes, perspectives and first cases 107
Agne Limante

Criteria to assess the quality of the Dutch informal pro-active approach model 126
Albert Marseille and Kars de Graaf

The concept of legitimate expectations as a factor in effective decision-making by administrative authorities in the Czech Republic 144
Soňa Skulová, Faisal Hussein, Marta Vrbová, Klára Prokopová

Red tape, lawyers and the burden of proof: legal speed – bumps on the road to effective adjudication? 160
Ludo M. Veny, Ivo Carlens, Bengt Verbeeck

Afterword: EGPA Community – actor of excellence in the research in public administration 179
Lucica Matei