

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
Preface	iii
Table of Cases	xxxv
Table of Legislation	cix
Table of European Treaties and Conventions	cxxi

PARA

Part 1 The Administrative System

1. The Nature and Purpose of Administrative Law
Central Issues	1-001
Dicey, Unitary Democracy and the Ultra Vires Principle
Basis of the Model
Unitary democracy	1-002
Unitary democracy, the ultra vires principle and administrative law	1-003
Implications of the Ultra Vires Model
Ultra vires: form of judicial intervention	1-004
Ultra vires: shape and scope of judicial intervention	1-005
The range of protected interests: natural justice and standing	1-006
Type of procedural protection	1-007
Tort, contract and public bodies	1-008
Deficiencies of the Ultra vires Model	1-009
Mistake avoidance and distrust of the administrative state	1-010
Form and scope of intervention: indeterminacy of the ultra vires principle	1-011
Ambit of public law: straining of the ultra vires principle	1-012
Defects in the private rights theme	1-013
Debate about the Ultra vires Principle	1-014
Rights, Legality and Abuse of Power
Nature of the Model	1-015

Meaning of a Rights-Based Approach
Protection of fundamental rights	1-016
Protection of fundamental rights plus principles of good administration	1-017
A rights-based view of law and adjudication	1-018
Justifications for a Rights-based Approach
Courts, legislature and constitutional democracy	1-019
The rule of law	1-020
Human Rights Act 1998	1-021
A Critique	1-022
A Response	1-023
The nature of CLC	1-024
CLC and judicial review: participation	1-025
CLC and judicial review: polycentricity and the focus of judicial review	1-026
CLC and judicial review: the nature of argument in judicial review	1-027
CLC and judicial review: limited relevance of fundamental values	1-028
Legitimacy and judicial review	1-029
Particular Implications of the Model-I: Traditional Pluralism	1-030
Intellectual Foundations	1-031
Pluralist critique of the unitary thesis	1-032
Limited effectiveness of parliamentary controls	1-033
Corporatist challenge	1-034
Implications for Administrative Law
Accountability and the scope of administrative law	1-035
Gateways to administrative law: natural justice, standing and intervention	1-036
Process rights: fostering participation	1-038
Scope of judicial review	1-039
Remedies and the ambit of administrative law	1-040
Particular Implications of the Model-II: Market-Oriented Pluralism
Intellectual Foundations	1-041
Implications for Administrative Law	1-042
Rights, citizenship and society	1-043
Process rights and participation	1-044
Ambit of public law	1-045
Conclusion	1-046
 2. The Administrative System: An Historical Perspective
Central Issues	2-001
The Nineteenth Century
Industrialisation and the Growth of Central Regulation	2-002
The Machinery of Administration
The Board system	2-003
Powers of Boards	2-004

The Rationale for Administrative Growth	2-005
Local Government	2-006
The Evolution of Statutory Inquiries	2-007
The Twentieth Century
The Birth of the Welfare State and the Development of the Tribunal System	2-008
Donoughmore, Franks, the 1980 Report and the 1988 Justice Report	2-009
3. Parliament and the Executive
Central Issues	3-001
Foundations of Executive Power	3-002
Expansion of the Franchise and Increase in Governmental Responsibility	3-003
Centralisation of Legislative Initiative	3-004
Development of the Party System	3-005
Role of the Legislature	3-006
The Commons and Scrutiny	3-007
Select committees: origins and development	3-008
Select committees: early assessments	3-009
Select committees: reform initiatives	3-010
Select committees: recent developments	3-011
The Commons and Legislation	3-012
Rippon Commission	3-013
Select Committee on Modernisation	3-014
Continuity and change	3-015
Reform of the House of Lords	3-016
Conclusion	3-017
4. Agencies and Non-departmental Public Bodies
Central Issues	4-001
Evolution of Executive Agencies and Non-Departmental Public Bodies
Fulton, Hiving Off and Agencies	4-002
Rayner, Ibbs and Executive Agencies	4-003
Non-Departmental Public Bodies	4-004
Coalition Government Reform	4-005
Terminology	4-006
Conclusion	4-007
Legal Status and Organisational Framework	4-008
Non-Ministerial Departments	4-009
Executive Agencies	4-010
NDPBs	4-011
Executive Agencies: Staffing, Accountability and Efficiency	4-012
Staffing	4-013
Control and Accountability
Control	4-014

Accountability	4-015
Effectiveness	4-016
NDPBs: Appointments, Accountability and Efficiency
Appointments	4-017
Control and Accountability	4-018
Control	4-019
Accountability	4-020
Efficiency and Effectiveness	4-021
Agencies: Institutional Design and Legal Principle	4-022
The Civil Aviation Authority	4-023
Nationalisation and the Public Corporation	4-024
Privatisation and Regulatory Control	4-025
A Constitutional and Legal Framework for Agencies	4-026
 5. Contract and Service Provision
Central Issues	5-001
Towards “Better Procurement”: The Framing of Government
Procurement Policy	5-002
Institutional Responsibility	5-003
Guidelines on Procurement	5-004
Range of Procurement Options	5-005
Contract and Government Contracts	5-006
Towards “Better Government”: Contract and Service Provision by
Central Government	5-007
Contracting-Out: Initial Conservative Policy	5-008
Contracting-Out: Labour Strategy	5-009
Contracting-Out: Coalition Strategy	5-010
Contracting-Out: Problems and Concerns	5-011
Contracting-Out: Contract Formation and Legal Principle
.....	5-012
Contracting-out: contract creation	5-013
Contracting-out: legal foundations	5-014
Contracting-out: application of public law principles
.....	5-015
Contracting-out: legal responsibility	5-016
Public Private Partnerships and the Private Finance Initiative:
Contract and Service Provision by Central Government	5-017
Towards “Best Value”: Contract and Service Provision by Local Government
Provision of Local Services: The Market and the Conservative Government’s Approach	5-018
Competitive procedures	5-019
Exclusion of non-commercial considerations	5-020
Contracting-out and compulsory competitive tendering
.....	5-021
Provision of Local Services: “Best Value” and the Labour
Government’s Approach	5-022

Provision of Local Services: Beyond “Best Value” and the Coalition Government	5-023
The Private Finance Initiative: Contract and Service Provision by Local Government	5-024
Public Procurement and the EU: Contract and Service Provision by Government	5-025
Object of the EU Rules
Application of the Treaty	5-026
Directives on Public Procurement
EU Directives	5-027
Application in the UK	5-028
Contract, Service Provision and Governance	5-029
Contract as an Instrument of Policy	5-030
Source and Nature of Executive Power	5-031
Blurring of the Public/Private Divide and the Responsibility for Policy Formation	5-032
Making the Contract: General Principles
Capacity to Contract
Crown	5-033
Ministers of the Crown	5-034
Statutory bodies	5-035
Authority of an Agent	5-036
Extent of the agent's authority: general	5-037
Breach of warranty of authority	5-038
Parliamentary Appropriation	5-039
Proceedings against the Crown	5-040
Crown Service
Existence of a contract	5-041
Dismissal of Crown servants	5-042
Arrears of pay	5-043
Statutory protection	5-044
Effect of an Unlawful Contract	5-045
6. Local Government
Central Issues	6-001
Local Authorities: Structure, Organisation, Powers and Finance
Structure	6-002
Internal Organisation	6-003
Functions and Powers	6-004
Industrialisation and urbanisation	6-005
Trading and redistribution	6-006
Market forces and local authority services: Conservative policy 1970s-1990s	6-007
Market forces and local authority services: Labour policy 1990s-2000s	6-008
Market forces and local authority services: Coalition policy 2010	6-009

Finances	6-010
Resources	6-011
Grants and curbs on spending: history	6-012
Grants and curbs on spending: current position	6-013
Local Governance: Agencies and Service Delivery	6-014
Central-Local Relations and Democracy	6-015
 7. Devolution
Central Issues	7-001
Scotland
Background	7-002
Composition of the Scottish Parliament	7-003
Formal Operation of the Scottish Parliament	7-004
Powers of the Scottish Parliament: Legislative Powers
Devolution strategies	7-005
Legislative powers: ss.28 and 29(1)	7-006
Limits to legislative power: s.29(2)	7-007
Limits to legislative power: s.29(2)(b) and Sch.5	7-008
Limits to legislative power: legal challenges and judicial approach	7-009
Powers of the Scottish Parliament: Executive Powers	7-010
Powers of the Scottish Parliament: Subordinate Legislation	7-011
Subordinate legislation and earlier enactments: the scope of the power	7-012
Subordinate legislation made under the Scotland Act: the scope of the power	7-013
Subordinate legislation made under the Scotland Act: who has the power	7-014
Subordinate legislation made in pursuance of the Scotland Act: the procedure	7-015
Powers of the Scottish Parliament: Money	7-016
Political Challenge to the Competence of the Scottish Parliament	7-017
Judicial Challenge to the Competence of the Scottish Parliament	7-018
Resolution of devolution issues: direct reference to the Supreme Court	7-019
Resolution of devolution issues: institution of proceedings by a law officer	7-020
Resolution of devolution issues: reference to other courts	7-021
Resolution of devolution issues: decision made by the court immediately seized of the matter	7-022
Devolution issues which “arise”: relevance of the general law on collateral challenge	7-023

Result of finding that the Scottish Parliament acted outside its competence	7-024
Scottish Devolution: Some Reflections	7-025
Political considerations	7-026
Legal considerations	7-027
Intergovernmental considerations	7-028
Economic considerations	7-029

Wales

Background	7-030
The Assembly
Composition	7-031
Operation	7-032
The Executive
Composition	7-033
Functions	7-034
Powers	7-035
Assembly measures	7-036
Assembly Acts	7-037
Subordinate legislation	7-038
The Assembly and other bodies	7-039
Judicial Challenge	7-040
Direct reference to the Supreme Court	7-041
Institution of proceedings by a law officer	7-042
Reference through other courts	7-043
Decisions made by the court immediately seized of the matter	7-044
The relevance of the general law on collateral challenge	7-045
The effect of a finding that the Assembly or Welsh government lacked power	7-046
Welsh Devolution: Some Reflections	7-047

8. Information, Standards and Complaints

Central Issues	8-001
Freedom of Information: Rationale and Background
Rationale for Freedom of Information	8-002
Freedom of Information Legislation in the UK	8-003
The Freedom of Information Act 2000	8-004
FOI Act 2000: The Basic Right	8-005
FOI Act 2000: Public Authorities	8-006
FOI Act 2000: Publication Schemes	8-007
FOI Act 2000: Exempt Information	8-008
FOI Act 2000: Administration	8-009
Standards of Conduct in Public Life
Cash, Sleaze and Concerns: The Development of the Administrative Machinery	8-010
Committee on Standards	8-011

Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards and the Select Committee on Standards and Privileges	8-012
Independent Parliamentary Standards Authority	8-013
The Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration
General	8-014
Who can be Investigated	8-015
What can be Investigated
Administrative, legislative and judicial functions	8-016
Administrative functions and maladministration	8-017
Administrative functions, maladministration and principles of good administration	8-018
Administrative functions, maladministration and the merits	8-019
Maladministration and political response	8-020
Matters Excluded from the PCA's Jurisdiction
Section 5(2): PCA and courts	8-021
Section 5(3) and Sch.3: excluded matters	8-022
Matters within the remit of devolved jurisdictions	8-023
Complainant and Procedure
Who can complain	8-024
MP filter	8-025
Investigation	8-026
Remedies
Remedial awards and compliance	8-027
Remedial principles	8-028
Workload	8-029
Select Committee on the PCA	8-030
Judicial Review and the PCA	8-031
Role of the PCA	8-032
The PCA and remedying of individual grievances	8-033
The PCA, enhanced remedial power, and Small Claims Administrative Court	8-034
The PCA, remedying of individual grievances and improved administration	8-035
Health	8-036
Local Commissioners
Scope of Authority	8-037
Commissioners, Internal Complaints Procedures and General Advice to Local Authorities	8-038
Ombudsman: Looking to the Future	8-039
9. Tribunals and Inquiries
Central Issues	9-001
Tribunals: Rationale and Nature
Reasons for their Creation	9-002
The Nature of Tribunals	9-003

Tribunal Reform: Franks and Leggatt

The Franks Report

The Committee's remit9-004

Recommendations9-005

Implementation9-006

The Leggatt Report9-007

The Tribunals Service9-008

The tribunals system9-009

Operation of the tribunals system9-010

Tribunals: Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 20079-011

Senior President of Tribunals9-012

First-Tier Tribunal and Upper Tribunal9-013

Transfer of Functions to First-tier Tribunal and Upper
Tribunal9-014

First-Tier Tribunal and Upper Tribunal: Self-Review, Appeal and Judicial Review9-015

Self-review9-016

Appeal of First-tier Tribunal decisions to the Upper
Tribunal9-017

Appeal of Upper Tribunal decisions to the Court of Appeal9-018

Appeal and the meaning of "law"9-019

Judicial review by the Upper Tribunal9-020

Judicial review of First-tier Tribunal9-021

Judicial review of Upper Tribunal9-022

Tribunal Procedure Rules

The position prior to the TCE Act9-023

The position under the TCE Act9-024

Mediation and Alternative Dispute Resolution9-025

The Courts and Tribunals Service, Administrative Support and Staffing9-026

Oversight: The Administrative Justice and Tribunals Council
.....9-027

The Council on Tribunals9-028

The Administrative Justice and Tribunals Council9-029

Statutory Inquiries

The Background9-030

The Franks Committee

The recommendations9-031

Implementation9-032

Inquiries: Practice and Procedure

Procedure before the Inquiry9-033

Procedure at the inquiry9-034

Procedure after the inquiry: inspectors' reports9-035

Procedure after the inquiry: extrinsic evidence9-036

Procedure after the inquiry: reasons9-037

Inquiry rules of procedure: an example9-038

Limitations: discretionary inquiries	9-039
Related types of decision-making: decisions by appointed persons and written representations	9-040
Related types of decision-making: Planning Inquiry Commissions	9-041
The Inquiries Act 2005
The position pre-2005	9-042
The Inquiries Act 2005	9-043
Supervision	9-044
Planning Inquiries, the Government and the Public	9-045
 10. European Union
Central Issues	10-001
The Institutions
Council	10-002
Commission	10-003
European Parliament	10-004
European Council	10-005
European Court of Justice	10-006
The Legal Order: Supremacy and Direct Effect	10-007
Supremacy	10-008
Direct Effect	10-009
The limits of public enforcement	10-010
Direct effect and empowerment of the individual	10-011
Van Gend en Loos	10-012
Expansion of direct effect: Treaty articles	10-013
Expansion of direct effect: regulations	10-014
Expansion of direct effect: Directives	10-015
Directives: horizontal and vertical direct effect	10-016
Directives: the scope of vertical direct effect	10-017
Directives: indirect effect	10-018
Directives: "incidental" horizontal direct effect	10-019
Direct Effect: Rights and Remedies	10-020
The Impact of EU Law	10-021
 11. A Case Study: Competition and Regulation
Central Issues	11-001
Competition: Whether to Regulate	11-002
Competition: Who Should Regulate	11-003
Competition: How to Regulate
Effectiveness and the Choice of the Legislative Criterion	11-004
Procedure and Procedural Rights	11-005
Defining the Public Interest: Rule-making and Discretion	11-006
Defining the Public Interest: Politics, Policy and Justiciability	11-007
Enforcement	11-008

Accountability and Control	11-009
The Importance of Competition Policy	11-010
Utilities and Market Power: Whether to Regulate	11-011
The Public Interest Rationale for Regulation	11-012
The Private Interest Rationale for Regulation	11-013
Natural Monopoly: Regulation or Structural Adjustment	11-014
Whether to Regulate: The Government's Approach to Regulation	11-015
Utilities Regulation: Political, Economic and Social Considerations	11-016
Utilities Regulation: The Broader Context	11-017
Utilities and Market Power: Who Should Regulate	11-018
The Common Law and the Courts	11-019
Departmental Regulation	11-020
Regulation by Tribunal or Board	11-021
Public Ownership	11-022
Privatisation and Agencies	11-023
Utilities and Market Power: How to Regulate Selling State Assets: Constitutional Implications	11-024
The Regulatory Regime: Legal Powers and Legal Constraints, the Initial Regime for Gas	11-025
The Regulatory Regime: Legal Powers and Legal Constraints, the Modified Regime for Gas	11-026
The Regulatory Regime: Institutional Design	11-027
The Regulatory Regime: The Limits of Public Law	11-028
The Regulatory Regime: The Citizen's Charter and Subsequent Legislation	11-029
Conclusion	11-030

Part 2

Judicial Review

12. Natural Justice: Hearings Central Issues	12-001
The Rationale for Procedural Rights	12-002
Limitation of the Principle	12-003
Administrative v Judicial	12-004
Rights and Remedies	12-005
Rights v Privileges	12-006
Statutory Hearings and Inquiries	12-007
The Principle Revived Ridge v Baldwin	12-008
Natural Justice and Fairness	12-009
Natural Justice, Fairness and Types of Process Right	12-010
Applicability of Procedural Protection	12-011
Categorisation: Administrative v Judicial v Legislative	12-012

Rights, Interests and Legitimate Expectations	12-013
Rights	12-014
Interests	12-015
Legitimate expectation	12-016
Article 6(1) ECHR: "Civil Rights and Obligations"	12-017
Content of Procedural Protection: Balancing	12-018
Balancing: Factors	12-019
Balancing: Limits	12-020
Balancing: Causation	12-021
Balancing: Execution	12-022
Content of Procedural Protection: Specific Procedural Norms
Notice	12-023
Consultation	12-024
The Hearing
The type of hearing	12-025
Rules of evidence	12-026
Representation	12-027
Reasons
The importance of reasons	12-028
Reasons and statute: general	12-029
Reasons and statute: HRA and the ECHR	12-030
Reasons and the common law: indirect techniques for securing reasons	12-031
Reasons and the common law: direct link with procedural fairness	12-032
Reasons, statute and common law: "late evidence of reasons"	12-033
Reasons and EU law	12-034
Appeals and Rehearing	12-035
Deciding Without Hearing	12-036
The ECHR and the Content of Procedural Rights	12-037
Fairness: Non-Adjudicative Procedures
The Relationship between Decision-making and Procedure	12-038
Example 1: Statutory Inquiries	12-039
Example 2: Social Welfare	12-040
Conclusion	12-041
13. Natural Justice: Hearings, Public Interest Immunity and Closed Material Procedure
Central Issues	13-001
Public Interest Immunity
"Crown Privilege"	13-002
From Crown Privilege to Public Interest Immunity	13-003
Public Interest Immunity: The Type of Body that can claim Immunity	13-004
Public Interest Immunity and Confidentiality	13-005

Public Interest Immunity: Duty or Discretion	13-006
Public Interest Immunity: Duty, Discretion and the ECHR	13-007
Public Interest Immunity: Disclosure and Public Interest Immunity	13-008
Public Interest Immunity: The Balancing Process	13-009
Public Interest Immunity: The Change in Governmental Approach	13-010
The new approach	13-011
Evaluation	13-012
Closed Material Procedures
Closed Material Procedures: Nature	13-013
Closed Material Procedures: Compatibility with Natural Justice	13-014
Closed Material Procedures: Limits of AF	13-015
Closed Material Procedures: The Need for Statutory Foundation	13-016
Government Proposals
Key Features	13-017
Reflections on the Proposals	13-018
The premise to the reforms	13-019
CMP and PII	13-020
Control over triggering CMPs	13-021
CMPs and special advocates	13-022
Conclusion	13-023
14. Natural Justice: Bias and Independence
Central Issues	14-001
Bias: Personal Interest
Pecuniary Interest	14-002
Other Personal Interests	14-003
Bias: Institutional
Prosecutor and Judge	14-004
Institutional Opinion	14-005
Bias: The Test for Bias
Past Confusion	14-006
From Gough to Porter
The Porter test	14-007
The bodies subject to the Porter test	14-008
Bias: Exceptions
Necessity	14-009
Statute	14-010
Waiver	14-011
The HRA and the ECHR
Article 6(1): The ECHR Legal Requirements	14-012
Article 6(1) in Domestic Courts: Fairness and Waiver	14-013

Article 6(1) in Domestic Courts: Planning and the Distinction between Policy and Fact-Finding	14-014
The role and position of the minister	14-015
The sufficiency of the controls via judicial review	14-016
Policy and fact finding after Alconbury	14-017
Article 6(1) in Domestic Courts: Housing and the Re-evaluation of the Policy/Fact-Finding Distinction	14-018
Article 6(1) in Domestic Courts: Developments since Begum	14-019
A Common Law Requirement of "An Independent and Impartial Tribunal"	14-020
 15. Rule-Making
Central Issues	15-001
Delegated Legislation: History, Rationale and Form
History	15-002
Rationale and Constitutional Concerns	15-003
Form	15-004
Delegated Legislation: Passage and Publication
The Statutory Instruments Act 1946	15-005
Publication and Making	15-006
Publication and Making: Exceptions	15-007
Delegated Legislation: Control by Parliament
Scrutiny by the House	15-008
Scrutiny in Committee: Delegated Legislation Committees	15-009
Scrutiny in Committee: The Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments	15-010
Scrutiny in Committee: The House of Lords Merits of Statutory Instruments Committee	15-011
Scrutiny of Regulatory Reform: A Special Regime	15-012
Scrutiny of European Legislation	15-013
Delegated Legislation: Consultation	15-014
Consultation Rights and Statute	15-015
Consultation Rights and the Common Law	15-016
Consultation Rights and Future Prospects
The benefits of consultation rights	15-017
Issues to be addressed	15-018
Consultation and the Code of Practice	15-019
Conclusion	15-020
Delegated Legislation: Judicial Review
Procedural Ultra Vires and Formal Invalidity	15-021
Substantive Ultra Vires	15-022
Infringement of the primary Act	15-023
Breach of constitutional principle	15-024
Purpose, relevancy and reasonableness	15-025
Delegation	15-026

Remedies	15-027
Delegated Legislation: Possible Reforms	15-028
Rippon Commission
Publication and access to the law	15-029
The subject-matter scrutinised by Parliament	15-030
Debates on statutory instruments	15-031
Committee Scrutiny	15-032
Consultation	15-033
The Select Committee on Procedure	15-034
The House of Lords' Merits of Statutory Instruments
Committee	15-035
Rules Made by the Administration
Type and Rationale	15-036
Legal Status	15-037
Rules made by the Administration: Problems	15-038
Rules made by the Administration: Possible Solutions
Direct control by Parliament	15-039
Legislative specification of standards	15-040
Consultation	15-041
Judicial control	15-042
Conclusion	15-043
The Impact of EU Law	15-044
16. Error of Law
Central Issues	16-001
Theories of Jurisdiction
Introduction	16-002
Collateral Fact Doctrine	16-003
The core thesis: preliminary questions and merits	16-004
Difficulties: ambit of the preliminary question	16-005
Limited Review
The core thesis: relative rather than absolute facts	16-006
Difficulties: distinction between scope and truth	16-007
Extensive Review: The Academic Argument	16-008
The core thesis: preliminary questions and substance
.....	16-009
Difficulties: the rationale for the underlying assumption
.....	16-010
Extensive Review: The Judicial Argument
The core thesis: review for error of law	16-014
Difficulties: assumptions and consequences	16-015
Distinction between law and fact	16-016
Conclusion	16-017
Case Law History	16-018
Limited Intervention	16-019
Collateral or Preliminary Fact Cases	16-020
Attempts at Reconciliation	16-021

Current Case Law

Impact of Anisminic	16-022
From Anisminic to Racal	16-023
The Uncertainty of Racal	16-024
The Impact of Page	16-025
The Impact of South Yorkshire Transport	16-026
The Impact of Cart	16-027
Summary	16-028
Error of Law within Jurisdiction	16-029
Statutory Review	16-030

The Test for Review: Policy Considerations

Clearing the Deck: The Demise of the Collateral Fact Doctrine and Limited Review	16-031
Judicial Control and Agency Autonomy: Remembering the Past when Constructing the Future	16-032
The Modern Law: Review for Errors of Law	16-033
A Middle Way: Rightness and Rational Basis	16-034
A Middle Way: The Pragmatic and Functional Approach	16-035
The Middle Way: Concerns Constitutional principle	16-036
Certainty	16-037
Conclusion	16-038

17. Error of Fact

Central Issues	17-001
Mistake of Fact: Meaning	17-002
Scope of Review: The Prior Law Rationale for Uncertainty	17-003
Narrow View	17-004
Broad View	17-005
Scope of Review: E v Secretary of State for the Home Department	17-006
The Facts	17-007
Judicial Review, Appeal and Fact	17-008
The Test for Review of Error of Fact	17-009
The Test for Admission of Evidence to Prove a Mistake of Fact	17-010
Scope of Review: Croydon Case	17-011
The Test for Mistake of Fact: Foundations	17-012
Looking Back: Difficulties with the Pre-Existing Narrow View	17-013
Looking Forward: The Conceptual Foundation for Judicial Intervention	17-014
The Test for Mistake of Fact: The Criteria in the E Case	17-015
Mistake as to Existing Fact including Mistake as to Availability of Evidence	17-016

The Fact or Evidence must be Uncontentious and Objectively Verifiable	17-017
Contentious and complex	17-018
Contentious and reliable	17-019
Responsibility for the Mistake	17-020
The Mistake should have Played a Material Part in the Tribunal's Reasoning	17-021
The Admissibility of Fresh Evidence	17-022
The Determination of Factual Error: Role of the Reviewing Court	17-023
The Standard of Proof Required in Relation to Facts	17-024
The Reviewing Court Should Not Generally Engage in De Novo Review of Facts	17-025
The Reviewing Court's Options when Engaged in Factual Scrutiny: Sufficiency of Evidence or Rationality	17-026
The Reviewing Court's Role in Relation to Factual Error only Apparent in the Light of Fresh Evidence	17-027
Conclusion	17-028

18. Failure to Exercise Discretion

Central Issues	18-001
Delegation
General Principles	18-002
Agency and Delegation	18-003
The creation of agency and delegation	18-004
Delegation and retention of authority by the delegator	18-005
Government Departments
General principles	18-006
The application of Carltona to other public bodies	18-007
Government departments and executive agencies	18-008
Government departments and contracting-out	18-009
Statutory Power	18-010
Fettering of Discretion: Rules, Policies and Discretion	18-011
An Existing Rule or Policy: The Present Law
General principles	18-012
The weight to be given to the policy/rule	18-013
Control over the substance of the policy	18-014
Rules and process rights: individual seeks non-application of the policy	18-015
Rules and process rights: individual seeks application of the policy	18-016
No Existing Rule or "Insufficient" Rules
The debate over rules v discretion	18-017
Organisations, the decision-making process, rules and discretion	18-018
Conclusion	18-019

Fettering of Discretion: Contracts and the Exercise of Discretion
The Problem	18-020
The Incompatibility Test
The origins of the incompatibility test	18-021
Development of the test	18-022
The determination of incompatibility: reasonable foresight	18-023
The determination of incompatibility: contract and property rights	18-024
The determination of incompatibility: "valid exercises of statutory power"	18-025
Compensation	18-026
Damages for breach of contract	18-027
Frustration	18-028
A specialised remedy	18-029
A specialised remedy: standard form contracts	18-030
The Position of the Crown	18-031
 19. Abuse of Discretion
Central Issues	19-001
Reasonableness: The Two Meanings	19-002
Types of Power that can be Controlled
Statutory Power	19-003
Prerogative Power	19-004
Common Law Discretionary Power	19-005
Non-statutory Bodies	19-006
Intensity of Review	19-007
Illegality: Common Law Constraints	19-008
Improper Purposes	19-009
Relevancy	19-010
Bad Faith	19-011
Human Rights: The Common Law Background	19-012
Common Law Jurisprudence	19-013
Heightened rationality review and alignment of common law and ECHR	19-014
The principle of legality and the interpretation of legislation	19-015
Secondary Literature	19-016
 20. Human Rights Act
Central Issues	20-001
Human Rights Act 1998
Status of the ECHR prior to the HRA	20-002
"Bringing Rights Home"	20-003
ECHR Case Law	20-004

Legislation: The Interpretative Obligation and the Declaration of Incompatibility

The Statutory Provisions	20-005
Legislative History	20-006
Judicial Interpretation of s.3: Early Case Law	20-007
Judicial Interpretation of s.3: Ghaidan v Godin-Mendoza	20-008
Judicial Interpretation of s.3: The Post- Ghaidan Case Law	20-009
Reflections on the Courts' Jurisprudence	20-010

Acts of Public Authorities: A New Head of Illegality

Section 6(1) HRA	20-011
Section 6(2) HRA	20-012
An example: Wilkinson	20-013
The relationship between s.6(2)(a) and (b): Hooper	20-014
The relationship between s.6(2)(a) and (b): conclusions	20-015

Acts of Public Authorities: The Scope of s.6

Two types of public authority	20-016
The test for core public authorities	20-017
The test for hybrid public authorities	20-018
The application of the test for hybrid public authorities	20-019
The application of the test for hybrid public authorities: contracting out	20-020
The application of the test for hybrid public authorities and contracting out: an assessment	20-021

Acts of Public Authorities: The Horizontal Effect of the Human Rights Act

Vertical and horizontal impact: general theory	20-022
Vertical and horizontal impact: the HRA	20-023

Proceedings and Standing under s.6	20-024
Remedies for Breach of s.6	20-025

Standard of Review

ECHR Precepts	20-027
---------------------	--------

Domestic Concept of Deference/Discretionary Area of

Judgment/Respect/Weight	20-028
The ECHR margin of appreciation has not been adopted	20-029

A domestic concept of deference/discretionary area of judgment/respect	20-030
---	--------

Terminology	20-031
-------------------	--------

Factors taken into account by the courts	20-032
--	--------

Proportionality under the HRA: Daly	20-033
--	--------

Proportionality under the HRA: The Role of the Court and the Initial Decision-Maker	20-034
--	--------

The court makes the final determination concerning proportionality	20-035
---	--------

The weight accorded to the view of the initial decision-maker: prior categorisation	20-036
The weight to be accorded to the view of the initial decision-maker: the HRA	20-037
Conclusion	20-038
The Standard of Review: The Academic Debate	20-039
Constitutional and institutional competence	20-040
Democratic dialogue	20-041
A critique of deference	20-042
Rights: The EU Dimension	20-043
Legislative Competence and Human Rights	20-044
Rights and Direct Effect	20-045
Fundamental Rights	20-046
The EU Charter of Rights	20-047
The ECHR, HRA and European Union	20-048
 21. Rationality and Proportionality
Central Issues	21-001
Two Central Foundations
Limits of Substantive Intervention	21-002
Inter-relation between Procedure and Substance	21-003
Wednesbury Unreasonableness: Past, Present, and Future
Wednesbury Unreasonableness: "The Touchstone of Legitimate Judicial Intervention"	21-004
Wednesbury Unreasonableness: The Present Law	21-005
The application of Wednesbury in cases not concerned with rights	21-006
The application of Wednesbury in cases concerned with rights	21-007
The non-application of Wednesbury in legitimate expectation cases: rationality and abuse of power	21-008
Wednesbury Unreasonableness: The Future of the Test	21-009
Proportionality in UK Law: Status, Meaning and Application	21-010
Legal Status of Proportionality
Proportionality in domestic law: Brind	21-011
Proportionality in domestic law: direct or indirect recognition	21-012
Proportionality in domestic law: the Human Rights Act 1998	21-013
Proportionality: cases with an EU law component	21-014
Proportionality: Place and Meaning	21-015
Proportionality: Application	21-016
Proportionality and rights	21-017
Proportionality and penalties	21-018
Proportionality and administrative discretion	21-019

Proportionality, the Role of the Court and the Standard of Review	21-020
Proportionality: The EU Dimension	21-021
Proportionality and Rights	21-022
Proportionality and Penalties	21-023
Proportionality and Discretion	21-024
Reasonableness, Proportionality and Review	21-025
Retention of Traditional Wednesbury alongside Proportionality	21-026
Practical objection	21-027
Normative objection	21-028
Retention of Modified Wednesbury alongside Proportionality	21-029
Proportionality as the General Criterion of Review:
Arguments in Favour	21-030
Simplicity	21-031
Structured inquiry	21-032
Reasoned inquiry	21-033
Intensity of review	21-034
Proportionality as the General Criterion of Review:
Arguments Against
Intrusive	21-035
Inappropriate	21-036
Legal certainty	21-037
Cost	21-038

22. Legitimate Expectations

Central Issues	22-001
Nature of the Problem
Actual and Apparent Retroactivity	22-002
Legal Certainty, Legitimate Expectations and Legality	22-003
Intra Vires Representations: Types of Case	22-004
Intra Vires Representations and Substantive Legitimate Expectations: The Contending Arguments
Arguments in Favour
Fairness in Public Administration	22-005
Reliance and trust in government	22-006
Equality	22-007
Rule of law	22-008
Arguments Against	22-009
Intra Vires Representations and Legitimate Expectations: Coughlan	22-010
Prior to Coughlan	22-011
Coughlan	22-012
Intra Vires Representations: The Determination of whether the Expectation is Reasonable and Legitimate	22-013

Intra Vires Representations: The Standard of Review Applied when the Administration Seeks to Defeat a Legitimate Expectation

Coughlan

The court's reasoning22-014

Assessment22-015

Nadarajah

The court's reasoning22-016

Assessment22-017

Bibi

The court's reasoning22-018

Assessment22-019

Intra Vires Representations and Legitimate Expectations: Types of

Case22-020

Changes of Policy22-021

Departure from an Existing Policy22-022

Individualised Representations22-023

Decisions, Final Determinations and Estoppel by Record

Final determinations22-024

Estoppel by record22-025

Ultra Vires Representations and Legitimate Expectations: The

Current Law22-026

Jurisdictional Principle: The Relationship of Ultra Vires,

Agency and Delegation22-027

Jurisdictional Principle: Application22-028

Jurisdictional Principle: The Conceptual Language, Estoppel

or Legitimate Expectations22-029

Jurisdictional Principle: Qualifications22-030

Procedural irregularity22-031

Delegation and finality of decision22-032

European Convention on Human Rights22-033

Ultra Vires Representations: Re-Assessing the Jurisdictional

Principle22-034

The Policy behind the Jurisdictional Principle: The First

Rationale22-035

Policy behind the Jurisdictional Principle: The Second and

Third Rationales22-036

Ultra Vires Representations: Three Possible Strategies

Limited Qualifications to the Jurisdictional Principle

Government-proprietary distinction22-037

Internal dealing22-038

Balancing the Public and Individual Interest

Balancing legality and legal certainty: nature of the argument22-039

Balancing legality and legal certainty: case law and

statute22-040

Balancing legality and legal certainty: objections22-041

Compensation22-042

23. Equality
Central Issues	23-001
Common Law
The Principle of Treating Like Groups Alike
The basic precept	23-002
The case law	23-003
Statutory Intervention and Statutory Interpretation
General	23-004
Public Sector Equality Duties	23-005
The HRA
Article 14 and Protocol 12 ECHR	23-006
The Determination of Discrimination
Michalak	23-007
Carson	23-008
Strict Scrutiny and Rationality Review	23-009
Strict scrutiny and rationality review	23-010
Strict scrutiny and rationality review: application	23-011
Gender and Positive Discrimination	23-012
EU Law	23-013
Discrimination and Nationality	23-014
Discrimination and Gender	23-015
Discrimination and Article 19 TFEU	23-016
Discrimination and Common Policies	23-017
Discrimination and the Charter of Rights	23-018

Part 3 Remedies

24. Invalidity
Central Issues	24-001
Types of Challenge
Direct and Collateral Attack: Classification	24-002
Relationship between Direct and Collateral Attack: The
General Principle	24-003
Relationship between Direct and Collateral Attack:
Qualifications to the General Principle	24-004
The particular statute	24-005
Court orders	24-006
The general law on remedies	24-007
Positive and negative decisions	24-008
De facto judges and officers	24-009
Void and Voidable: Correct and Incorrect Uses	24-010
Void: A Relative not Absolute Concept	24-011
The Decision as to whether an Error Renders the Administrative Act Void	24-012
The Consequences of Holding that an Act is Void	24-013

Voidable: Different Uses	24-014
Indicative of the need to challenge	24-015
An alternative to locus standi	24-016
The gravity of the error	24-017
Errors of law within jurisdiction	24-018
Void and Voidable: Theory, Reality and Judicial Discretion	24-019
Administrative Convenience, Justice and Rigidity	24-020
Resolving the Problem
First principles	24-021
The preferable approach: remedial discretion	24-022
The relevance of compensation	24-023
The relevance of parliamentary redress	24-024
Void and Voidable: Natural Justice	24-025
Hearings	24-026
Bias	24-027
Waiver	24-028
Problems of Proof
The Burden of Proof	24-029
Validity Pending Determination	24-030
Partial Invalidity	24-031
 25. Remedies: Standing
Central Issues	25-001
The Law before 1978	25-002
Certiorari	25-003
Prohibition	25-004
Mandamus	25-005
Injunction and Declaration	25-006
The Attorney General, Public Authorities and Statutory Appeals
.....	25-007
Attorney General	25-008
Public Authorities	25-009
Statutory Appeals	25-010
Standing in Judicial Review Actions
Introduction	25-011
The IRC Case	25-012
Distinguishing Gouriet	25-013
Sufficiency of interest: a uniform test	25-014
The determination of sufficiency of interest: fusion of standing and merits	25-015
Summary	25-016
Interpretation of the Test	25-017
Individual challenges: a liberal approach, but no real fusion	25-018
Individual challenges: a more restrictive approach, and use of the fusion technique	25-019

Group challenges: associational, surrogate and public interest	25-020
Public interest challenges by a group or an individual	25-021
Group challenges and unincorporated associations	25-022
Standing, fusion and the judicial role	25-023
Locus Standi under the Human Rights Act 1998	25-024
Locus Standi Outside s.31	25-025
Intervention in Judicial Review Actions	25-026
The Function of Standing	25-027
Vindication of Private Rights	25-028
Fusion of Standing and Merits	25-029
Citizen Action
The arguments for such an action	25-030
Practical objections	25-031
Conceptual objections: the need for a person	25-032
Conceptual objections: inconsistent with the traditional judicial role	25-033
The limits to the citizen action: the relativity of ultra vires	25-034
Injury in Fact	25-035
Standing and Intervention: Looking to the Future
Standing	25-036
Standing: Individuals and Groups	25-037
Intervention	25-038
26. Judicial Remedies
Central Issues	26-001
Certiorari/Quashing Order and Prohibition/Prohibiting Order
Introduction	26-002
The Scope of Certiorari/Quashing Orders and Prohibition/Prohibiting Orders	26-003
Persons and type of authority	26-004
The determination of rights	26-005
Duty to act judicially	26-006
Certiorari and subordinate legislation	26-007
Grounds for the Award of Certiorari and Prohibition	26-008
Limitations on the Grant of the Remedies	26-009
The Effect of an Award of Certiorari/Quashing Order	26-010
Mandamus/Mandatory Order
Introduction	26-011
The Ambit of Mandamus/Mandatory Order
Type of Duty	26-012
Type of defect	26-013
Demand and refusal	26-014
Limits on the Availability of Mandamus/Mandatory Order	26-015

Declaration

Introduction	26-016
The Scope of Declaration
The broad reach of the declaration	26-017
Types of defect	26-018
Limits on the Availability of Declaration	26-019
Exclusion of original jurisdiction	26-020
Exclusion of supervisory jurisdiction	26-021
Hypothetical questions: ripeness and mootness	26-022
Justiciability	26-023
The Impact of the Declaration	26-024
Practice and Procedure	26-025

Injunction

Introduction	26-026
The Types of Injunction	26-027
The Scope of Injunctive Relief
Injunctions: general	26-028
Injunctions and Parliament	26-029
Injunctions and public offices	26-030
Limits to Injunctive Relief	26-031
Practice and Procedure	26-032
Other Remedies	26-033
Habeas Corpus	26-034
Default Powers	26-035

27. Remedies and Reform

Central Issues	27-001
The Claim for Judicial Review
The Ordinary Courts: The Legal Foundations of the Existing Procedure	27-002
The Upper Tribunal: Legal Foundations for New Judicial Review Power	27-003
The Application/Claim for Judicial Review	27-004
O'Reilly v Mackman	27-005
The Exceptions: "Getting Out" of the Judicial Review Procedure
The Reasons for Seeking to Proceed outside s.31	27-006
Collateral Attack and Private Rights: The Initial Approach	27-007
Collateral Attack and Private Rights: Broadening the Exception	27-008
Collateral Attack: Beyond Private Rights	27-009
The Impact of the Human Rights Act 1998	27-010
The Impact of the CPR	27-011
Summary	27-012
Assessment	27-013
Public Law Cases: "Getting Into" the Judicial Review Procedure
The Reasons for wishing to Use the s.31 Procedure	27-014

Public Law: Possible Tests	27-015
Source of the power	27-016
Scope of the prerogative remedies	27-017
“Nature” of the power	27-018
Boundaries of Public Law	27-019
Public bodies and executive agencies	27-020
Public authorities and contracting-out	27-021
Public authorities and contracting power: the need for a “public law element”	27-022
Regulatory bodies: the “privatisation of the business of government”	27-023
Regulatory bodies: contract, power and control	27-024
Employment relationships: the straining of the public/private divide	27-025
Activities within Parliament’s proper sphere	27-026
Activities which are “inherently private”	27-027
The impact of the Human Rights Act 1998	27-028
Future prospects	27-029
Evaluation of the Present Law
The Unavoidable Issue: Which Bodies are Amenable to Review	27-030
The Central Issue: Do Public Bodies Require Special Protection	27-031
Protecting Public Bodies: Permission
Permission: rationale	27-032
Permission: the impact of the CPR	27-033
Permission: empirical evidence	27-034
Permission: conclusion	27-035
Protecting Public Bodies: Time Limits
Time limits: current rules	27-036
Time limits: justification	27-037
The Exclusivity Principle	27-038
Disclosure and Inspection	27-039
Conclusion	27-040
Procedure
Permission	27-041
The Substantive Hearing	27-042
Discretion to Refuse Relief	27-043
The Effect of Alternative Remedies
Choice of Remedies under CPR 54	27-044
Alternative Statutory Remedies	27-045
Conclusion	27-046
Conclusion	27-047

28. Remedies: Exclusion of Review

Central Issues	28-001
Complete Exclusion
Finality Clauses	28-002
“No Certiorari” Clauses	28-003
“Shall not be Questioned” Clauses	28-004
“As if Enacted” and “Conclusive Evidence”	28-005
Statutory Intervention	28-006
Time Limits	28-007
The Effect of the Human Rights Act 1998	28-008
Conclusion
Complete Ouster Clauses	28-009
Time Limits	28-010

29. Crown Liability

Central Issues	29-001
Statutes and the Crown
Statutes Binding the Crown	29-002
Statutes Benefiting the Crown	29-003
Procedure, Remedies and the Crown
General	29-004
Injunctions and Interim Relief	29-005
Extending injunctive relief	29-006
Interim declarations	29-007
Contempt	29-008
Tort Liability and the Crown
The Law Prior to 1947	29-009
Crown Proceedings Act 1947	29-010

30. Tort and Restitution

Central Issues	30-001
Negligence, Statutory Duties and Statutory Powers	30-002
The “Liberal Approach”	30-003
The “Cautious” or “Restrictive Approach”	30-004
Incrementalism and restriction of the duty of care	30-005
Discretion and restriction of the duty of care	30-006
Omissions and restriction of the duty of care	30-007
The “Middle Way”	30-008
Greater unwillingness to exclude the duty of care in its entirety	30-009
Greater willingness to consider issues at the level of breach rather than duty	30-010
Instances where the courts deny the existence of the duty of care	30-011
Misfeasance and nonfeasance	30-012
The impact of the ECHR	30-013

Breach of Statutory Duty
Criteria for Liability	30-014
Application of the Criteria	30-015
Comment	30-016
The Human Rights Act	30-017
Criteria for Liability	30-018
Application of the Criteria	30-019
Damages and the standard of liability	30-020
Damages and discretion	30-021
Damages and quantum	30-022
Comment	30-023
Misfeasance in Public Office
Criteria for Liability	30-024
Two limbs of the tort	30-025
The relationship between the two limbs	30-026
Application of the Criteria	30-027
Comment	30-028
Nuisance
Criteria for Liability	30-029
Application of the Criteria	30-030
Comment	30-031
Rylands v Fletcher
Criteria for Liability	30-032
Application of the Criteria	30-033
Comment	30-034
Restitution	30-035
Duress	30-036
Mistake	30-037
Recovery for Ultra Vires Demands	30-038
Discretionary Payments	30-039
Restitution from the Individual	30-040
EU Law: Damages Liability and Recovery of Money
Criteria for Liability	30-041
Application of the Criteria	30-042
Implications for Domestic Law	30-043
Recovery of Money	30-044
Judicial Immunity	30-045
Reform
Options for Reform	30-046
Compensation via a Risk Theory	30-047
Compensation for Invalidity	30-048
Compensation for Serious Breach	30-049
Compensation on an Ex Gratia Basis	30-050
Conclusion	30-051
Index	961