

CONTENTS

1 Education and learning	READING Good study habits p 4–5 Effective reading: (1): survey; skim; scan (2): intensive reading Education in the UK p 6 Effective reading: (3): increasing your reading speed; focusing your reading	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 7 Comparing and contrasting
2 Innovations in health and medicine	READING A musical cure p 12–13 Predicting content Topic sentences A new vaccine p 14 Avoiding plagiarism (1): rephrasing	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 15 Rephrasing Rules: the passive voice
3 Urban planning	READING A model of good urban planning p 20–21 Paragraph purpose: how understanding the purpose of a paragraph helps you understand a text Text cohesion: linking strategies between paragraphs A capital city p 22	RESEARCH Finding information p 23 Using reference material: using synonyms or more general words to find what you need Searching the Internet efficiently (1): choosing an appropriate site (2): planning your search
4 Water, food, and energy	READING Water, water, everywhere p 28–29 Finding information from more than one source Food chains p 30 Identifying language for rephrasing and giving examples: using discourse markers or signals to help you understand a text	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 31 Introductions and conclusions Rephrasing and giving examples
5 Free trade and fair trade	READING Globalization p 36–37 Distinguishing between facts, speculation, and reported opinions: expressing generalizations, caution, certainty and uncertainty, and reporting another person's opinion Is 'fair trade' fair? p 38 Identifying a point of view	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 39 Expressing certainty and uncertainty Expressing caution
6 Conserving the past	READING The Terracotta Army p 44–46 Dealing with longer texts (1): survey; question; read (2): recall; review	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 47–48 Indicating reason or result Rules: reason or result Adding information
7 Wonders of the modern world	READING Feats of engineering p 52–53 How to make reading easier (1): dealing with unknown words (2): dealing with complex sentences Islands in the sun p 54 How to make reading easier (3): understanding pronouns	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Word-building (1) p 55 Suffixes: how word endings change the part of speech and meaning of a word
8 Olympic business	READING The Olympic Games p 60–61 Making notes: different methods of recording what you read Two Olympic bids p 62	RESEARCH Crediting sources (2) p 63 Avoiding plagiarism (3): acknowledging direct and indirect quotations Avoiding plagiarism (4): punctuation of direct and indirect quotations
9 Trends	READING Work p 68–69 Understanding visual information: graphics Trends in education p 70 Interpreting data: looking for general patterns and then detail	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 71–72 Language for describing graphs, charts, and statistics
10 Communication and technology	READING Communication technology p 76–78 Dealing with longer texts (3): predict, skim, and select Dealing with longer texts (4): read, make notes, check, and recall	LANGUAGE FOR SPEAKING p 79 Language for presentations

WRITING Education in Japan and England: a comparison p 8–9

Checking your writing (1): sentence length; word order and linking words; missing words

Writing a comparing and contrasting essay

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Dictionary work p 10

Using a dictionary (1)

(1) symbols and abbreviations

(2) correct usage of new words

REVIEW p 11

Checking your writing (2): punctuation, spelling, and grammar

WRITING Keeping healthy p 16–17

Developing a paragraph: topic sentences; body sentences; final sentences

Writing a paragraph

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Recording vocabulary p 18

Recording vocabulary

(1): which words to record

(2): what to record about a word

(3): choosing a suitable method to record vocabulary

REVIEW

p 19

WRITING An international trade fair p 24–25

Selecting information: identifying the purpose and key message of your writing

Prioritizing: putting the information in order

Brainstorming: before writing – writing notes, then organizing, selecting, and prioritizing your ideas

Writing a persuasive article

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Collocations (1) p 26

Collocations (1): words that go together – adjective + noun; verb + noun

REVIEW

p 27

WRITING Sources of energy p 32–33

Introductions

Developing a thesis statement

Conclusions

Checking your writing (3): paragraph content

Writing to describe and explain

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Compound nouns and adjectives p 34

Compound nouns

Compound adjectives

REVIEW

p 35

WRITING Examples of fair trade p 40

Supporting a point of view: the main point in a topic sentence, giving supporting arguments, and giving examples

Consumerism p 40–41

Presenting arguments

(1) Consistency: organizing your argument by topic or viewpoint

(2) Staging: words and phrases for staging arguments

Writing an opinion essay

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Multiple meanings p 42

Using a dictionary (3): words with more than one meaning, pronunciation, or part of speech

REVIEW

p 43

WRITING Museums p 48–49

Checking your writing (4): looking at purpose, content, and organization of an essay

Writing an evaluation essay

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Collocations (2) p 50

Collocations (2):

Words that go together – verb + adverb; adverb + adjective

REVIEW

p 51

RESEARCH Crediting sources (1) p 56

Avoiding plagiarism (2): Acknowledging sources

LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 56

Verbs for reporting another writer's ideas

Rules: reporting verbs

WRITING Tunnels and buildings p 57–58

Summarizing: identifying, organizing, and rewriting ideas

Writing a summary

REVIEW

p 59

LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 64

Expressing contrasting

Rules: contrast

WRITING A permanent site for the Olympics p 65

Process writing: the stages of essay writing

Writing a discursive essay

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Synonyms and antonyms p 66

Synonyms and near synonyms: choosing different synonyms for different contexts

Antonyms: choosing different antonyms for different contexts

REVIEW

p 67

WRITING Population trends p 72–73

Using graphs to present data

Writing a report using visual information

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Word-building (2) p 74

Prefixes: recognizing prefixes which carry meaning

REVIEW

p 75

Composite words

WRITING FOR SPEAKING Interpreting and translating p 80–81

How to be a good presenter

Preparing notes for a presentation

Giving a presentation

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Formal and informal vocabulary p 82

Formal and informal vocabulary: using formal and informal vocabulary appropriately

REVIEW

p 83

WORD LIST p 84PHONETICS SYMBOLS p 94