

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
Abbreviations	xxv
Table of statutes	xxvii
List of cases	xxxv

PART I

The British constitution

CHAPTER I

The constitutional order 3

1	CONSTITUTIONAL RULES	4
	The courts and habeas corpus	8
	An unwritten constitution	10
2	INSTITUTIONS	11
3	THE IDEA OF THE CONSTITUTION	19
	(a) Democracy and the constitution	19
	(b) Parliamentary sovereignty	23
	Transfers of sovereignty	28
	Continuing sovereignty and the 'new view'	33
	Sovereignty reappraised	40

- (c) The separation of powers 43
 - The courts in the constitution 47
 - The courts and the executive 51
 - The courts and Parliament 58
 - Parliament and the executive 64
- (d) The rule of law 66
 - Government under law 66
 - Equality before the law 77
 - Discretion and the rule of law 83
 - Courts and the rule of law 85
 - The rule of law: a wider conception 87
 - The rule of the good law? 89
 - The rule of law and parliamentary sovereignty 90
- (e) Accountability 90
 - Ministerial responsibility 92
 - Access to information and reasons 93

CHAPTER 2

Law, convention and liberty 97

- I THE LAW OF THE CONSTITUTION 97
 - (a) Statutes 98
 - (b) Subordinate legislation 103
 - (c) Common law 103
- 2 CONVENTIONS 112
 - How do conventions arise? 115
 - The Widdicombe Conventions 117
 - Patriation of the Canadian Constitution 1980-82 119
- 3 THE CONSTITUTION AND LIBERTY 130
 - (a) A flexible constitution 130
 - (b) Constitutional rights and liberties 132
 - Statutory interpretation 133
 - Delegated legislation 135
 - Common law 137
 - (c) The campaign for a 'Bill of Rights' 139
 - (d) The Human Rights Act 1998 141
 - The Convention rights 141
 - Interpretation 146
 - The mechanism of protection 147
 - The Human Rights Act 1998 and sovereignty 150
 - The prospect for human rights 153

- (e) Freedom of expression 154
 - Freedom of expression and democracy 154
 - The Spycatcher cases 162
 - Freedom of expression and statute 166
 - Conflict of rights 170
- (f) Freedom of assembly 172
 - Common law 174
 - Freedom of assembly as a constitutional right 180
 - Statutory restrictions on freedom of assembly 182

PART II

The government in context 187

CHAPTER 3

The Crown and the government 189

- 1 THE CROWN 189
- 2 PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES OF THE CROWN 191
- 3 MONARCHY AND THE PREROGATIVE 196
 - (a) Appointment of Prime Minister 198
 - (b) Dismissal of ministers 201
 - (c) Dissolution of Parliament 203
- 4 THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT 206
 - (a) Ministers 206
 - Conduct of Ministers 212
 - Ministerial solidarity 214
 - The Westland Affair 1985-6 215
 - (b) The Prime Minister 222
 - The Prime Ministers' office 226
 - (c) The Cabinet 227
 - (d) Ministerial committees of the Cabinet 232
 - (e) Government departments 236
 - The Next Steps: executive agencies 239
 - (f) Non-departmental public bodies (NDPBs) 240
 - Control and accountability 242
 - (g) The civil service 244
 - The status of civil servants 245
 - The civil service: principles and conduct 248
 - Civil servants and ministers 252
 - Special advisers 254
 - Task forces 255

CHAPTER 4

The structure of the United Kingdom 257

- I THE UNITED KINGDOM AS A UNITARY STATE 257
 - (a) Federalism 257
 - (b) Devolution 262
- 2 THE COUNTRIES OF THE UNITED KINGDOM 265
 - (a) England 266
 - (b) Scotland 268
 - Scotland in the Union 268
 - The government of Scotland before devolution 275
 - Devolved government 275
 - Parliament and the devolution settlement 281
 - (c) Wales 283
 - Devolved government 284
 - (d) Northern Ireland 288
 - Devolved government 1921–72 289
 - Direct rule 292
 - Renewed search for a settlement 293
 - Devolution under the Northern Ireland Act 1998 296
 - Human rights and equality 299
 - North-South Ministerial Council and British-Irish Council 300
 - (e) Devolution: conclusions 301
- 3 LOCAL GOVERNMENT 302
 - Structure of local government 304
 - Functions of local authorities 309
 - Powers 310
 - By-laws 311
 - Ultra vires and judicial control 311
 - Maladministration 314
 - Central-local government relations 315

CHAPTER 5

The European dimension 320

- I NEW LEGAL ORDERS 320
- 2 THE EUROPEAN CONVENTION FOR THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS 321
 - Applications to the European Court of Human Rights 323
 - Impact of decisions on UK law 326

3	STRUCTURE AND OBJECTIVES OF THE EUROPEAN UNION	328
4	INSTITUTIONS AND LAW OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY	333
	(a) Community institutions and ancillary bodies	333
	The European Commission	333
	The Council of the European Union	337
	The Economic and Social Committee	339
	The Committee of the Regions	339
	The European Council	340
	The European Parliament	340
	The Court of Justice of the European Communities and the Court of First Instance	344
	The Court of Auditors	348
	The future of the Union	348
	(b) The Member States	348
	(c) Community law	349
	Secondary legislation	350
	Regulations	354
	Directives	354
	Direct effect	357
	Liability for non-implementation of directive	360
	Subsidiarity and proportionality	362
	General principles of law	363
	Community law and national law	365
5	THE UNITED KINGDOM IN THE EUROPEAN UNION	367
	(a) Accession and integration	367
	(b) The European Communities Act 1972	370
	(c) Community law in the courts	373
	Primacy	374
	(d) Sovereignty	383

CHAPTER 6

The powers of government 388

1	OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES OF GOVERNMENT	388
2	THE BASIS OF GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY	391
3	THE POWERS OF GOVERNMENT	394
	(a) General	394
	(b) Parliamentary legislation	395
	Implementation and effectiveness of legislation	401
	(c) Delegated legislation	404
	Statutory instruments	408

- (d) Prerogative legislation 415
- (e) Executive powers 416
 - Prerogative powers 419
- (f) Administrative rule-making (quasi-legislation) 426
 - Naturalization 427
 - Passports 427
 - Interception of communications 428
 - The Crichton Down rules 428
 - Public interest immunity (PII) claims 429
 - Arms exports 430
 - Ex gratia compensation for wrongful conviction 430
- (g) Guidance and codes of practice 433
 - Local authorities 435
 - The police 435
- (h) Voluntary agreement and self-regulation 437

PART III

The responsibility of government 443

Introduction 443

CHAPTER 7

Parliament and government 447

- 1 RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT 447
- 2 INDIVIDUAL MINISTERIAL RESPONSIBILITY 451
 - Crichton Down 452
 - A convention of resignation? 453
 - The Maze break-out 456
 - Westland 458
 - Responsibility of civil servants 462
- 3 THE POWER OF PARLIAMENT 467
 - (a) Opposition 469
 - (b) Backbenchers 475
 - (c) The House 477

- 4 CONTROL AND SCRUTINY 478
 - (a) Policy and administration 479
 - Debates 479
 - Questions 480
 - Select committees 484
 - (b) Legislation 493
 - Primary legislation 493
 - Delegated legislation 496
 - (c) Finance 498
 - The Public Accounts Committee 501
 - (d) European Community legislation 502
- 5 THE HOUSE OF LORDS 507

CHAPTER 8

Parties, groups and the people 516

- 1 THE PEOPLE IN THE CONSTITUTION 516
- 2 ELECTIONS AND THE MANDATE 518
 - (a) Review of constituency boundaries 518
 - (b) Fairness of the contest 527
 - The election deposit 527
 - Election expenditure 528
 - The media 530
 - (c) Reform of electoral law 532
 - (d) The electoral system 534
 - Some varieties of proportional representation 538
 - The Jenkins Report 1998 541
 - (e) The mandate 543
- 3 THE PEOPLE AND GOVERNMENT 547
 - Referendums 548
- 4 POLITICAL PARTIES 554
 - Selection of candidates 554
 - Party policy 555
 - Financial resources 558
- 5 PRESSURE GROUPS 559
- 6 OPEN GOVERNMENT 566
 - The Code of Practice 569
 - The Freedom of Information Act 2000 570

CHAPTER 9

Remedies against public authorities 575

- I JUDICIAL REVIEW 575
 - (a) Appeal and review 575
 - (b) Judicial review and the control of power 577
 - (c) Grounds of review 581
 - Illegality 581
 - Irrationality 588
 - Procedural impropriety and unfairness 594
 - (d) The scope and limits of review 600
 - Ouster clauses 603
 - Prerogative powers 604
 - Miscellaneous common law powers 609
 - (e) Standing, procedure and remedies 610
 - Standing 610
 - Procedure 612
 - Remedies 614
 - Collateral challenge 616
 - (f) The advance of judicial review 616
- 2 PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE ADMINISTRATION 618
 - (a) Liability of the Crown 618
 - Contractual liability 620
 - Tortious liability 623
 - Restitution 625
 - (b) Public authorities in general 627
 - Contractual liability 627
 - Tortious liability 628
- 3 REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES 631
 - (a) Tribunals 632
 - (b) The Parliamentary Ombudsman 638
 - (c) Other mechanisms of redress 646

PART IV

Constitutional innovation and reform 649CHAPTER 10 651*Constitutional renewal 651

- 1 A NEW CONSTITUTIONAL SETTLEMENT 651
Implementing the Labour reform project 653
- 2 DIRECTIONS OF REFORM 654
Effective governance 657
Revival of Parliament 657
Accountability 659
Fundamental rights 660
A written constitution? 661

Index 665