

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Preface	x

Introduction: towards a legal framework for Europe's integrated administration	1
Herwig C.H. Hofmann and Alexander H. Türk

PART I MODELS

1. The administrative implementation of European Union law: a taxonomy and its implications	9
Edoardo Chiti
2. Shared administration, disbursement of community funds and the regulatory state	34
Paul Craig

PART II PROCEDURES AND STRUCTURES

3. 'Glass half empty or glass half-full?': accountability issues in comitology and the role of the European Parliament after the 2006 reform of comitology	65
Christine Neuhold
4. Comitology: the ongoing reform	89
Manuel Szapiro
5. Agencies: the 'dark hour' of the executive?	116
Michelle Everson
6. Composite decision making procedures in EU administrative law	136
Herwig C.H. Hofmann
7. The emergence of transatlantic regulation	168
George A. Bermann

PART III SUPERVISION AND ACCOUNTABILITY

8. Administrative supervision of administrative action in the European Union 179
Gerard C. Rowe
9. Judicial review of integrated administration in the EU 218
Alexander H. Türk
10. Participation and participation rights in EU law and governance 257
Joana Mendes
11. The effects of the principles of transparency and accountability on public procurement regulation 288
Christopher H. Bovis
12. Good administration as procedural right and/or general principle? 322
Hanns Peter Nehl

PART IV CONCLUSIONS

13. Legal challenges in EU administrative law by the move to an integrated administration 355
Herwig C.H. Hofmann and Alexander H. Türk
- Index* 381