

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
1 Introduction	I
PART ONE MEMORY, PRECEDENT AND WRITING SYSTEMS OF LAW
2 A Short History of Failure: Law and Criticism
1580–1620	15
Failure and the Positive Unconscious of a Science:
Abraham Fraunce	15
Criticism and the Logic of Law	20
Memory and the Fascination of Law	32
Of Law and Forgetting	43
3 The Eucharist and English Law: A Genealogy of Legal Presence in the Common Law Tradition
Supper at Emmaus	53
The Eucharist	54
A Genealogy of the Ancient Constitution: Scripture and Law	56
Dogma and Heterodoxy: Language and the English Way	63
Excursus	83
108
4 Legal Writing Systems: Rhetoric, Grammatology and the Linguistic Injuries of Law
Introduction	111
Legal Writing Systems	122
Conclusion	144

5 Contractions: A Linguistic Philosophy of the Postal Rule	149
Literary Contracts	154
Legal Letters and Social Contracts (De Fide Instrumentorum)	162
Metaphysics of Contract	170
 PART TWO LANGUAGE, IMAGE, SIGN AND COMMON LAW
6 Modalities of Legal Annunciation: A Linguistics of Courtroom Speech	179
Let Us Compare Mythologies: Questions of the Legal Other	179
Legal Auditoria	186
The Language of Annexation and Reformulation	193
Forms of Closure: The Modalities of Annunciation	201
7 The Enchanted Past: A Semiotics of Common Law	209
Introduction: The Very Idea	210
The Iconography of English Law	213
Behaviour at Bus Stops; Queues and the Manner of a Case	230
Conclusion	251
8 Law's Emotional Body: Image and Aesthetic in the Work of Pierre Legendre	260
Critique of Dogmatic Reason	268
The Legal Institution of Life	281
Conclusion	293
9 Pro Persona Mori: To Die for One's Mask	297
Introduction: Laws of Movement	297
Laws of Place	299
Figure 9.1: Living in the Mirror or Altar Ego	302
Figure 9.2: Framed or 'I Think I Believe God is Dead'	306
Figure 9.3: Circular Ruins or the Marriage	309
Figure 9.4: Into a Controlled Orbit	311
Figure 9.5: The Parrot and the Snake	316
Figure 9.6: The Contract	319
 Bibliography	325
Index	341