

Table of Contents

Introduction, Policy and Legislative Perspectives

From Common Rules to Best Practices in European Civil Procedure: An Introduction	9
---	---

Burkhard Hess / Xandra Kramer

Common Rules and Best Practices From the Perspective of the European Commission	31
--	----

Norel Rosner

Common Rules and Best Practices From the Perspective of the European Parliament	35
--	----

Robert Bray

Part I: Common Standards of EU Civil Procedure: Harmonization and Cooperation

Harmonizing Civil Procedure: Initial Remarks	43
--	----

Remo Caponi

Approximation of Civil Procedural Law in the European Union	63
---	----

C.H. van Rhee

Do We Need Harmonisation to Achieve Harmonious Cooperation?	77
---	----

Marta Requejo Isidro

Harmonious Judicial Cooperation Through Harmonisation: (What) Can We Learn From Criminal Matters?	119
--	-----

Monique Hazelhorst

Harmonization of Civil Procedure: Is the United States a Model for the European Union?	133
---	-----

Christopher A. Whytock

Comments on Christopher A. Whytock, Harmonization of EU Procedural Law: Is the US a Positive or Negative Model?	159
Jan von Hein

Part II: Procedural Innovation and E-Justice

From Drafting Common Rules to Implementing Electronic European Civil Procedures: The Rise of e-CODEX	181
Marco Velicogna / Giampiero Lupo

Taking Justice Online: Developments in England and Wales and Their Potential Influence on European Procedural Harmonisation	213
John Sorabji

Envisioning the Next Step in e-Justice: In Search of the Key to Provide Easy Access to Cross-border Justice for All Users	243
Ernst Steigenga / Marco Velicogna

E-Justice, Innovation and the EU	271
Eva Storskrubb

Litigation Costs and Procedural Cultures – New Avenues For Research in Procedural Law –	303
Adriani Dori / Vincent Richard

Part III: Alternative Dispute Resolution and Judicial Cooperation

Consumer Dispute Resolution Mechanisms: Effective Enforcement and Common Principles	353
Christopher Hodges / Stefaan Voet

The Need for Synergies In Judicial Cooperation and Dispute Resolution: Changes in the European Small Claims Procedure	379
Pablo Cortés

Transplanting Best Practices from ADR Mechanisms to Court Proceedings in Cross-border Litigation?	403
---	-----

Fernando Gascón Inchausti

How can alternative mechanisms for dispute resolution contribute to judicial cooperation and what is needed to ensure effective enforcement in cross-border cases?	427
--	-----

Jolanda Girzl

Part IV: Promoting Best Practices in Judicial Cooperation

The Promotion of Best Practices in European Civil Procedure: Some Introductory Remarks	439
--	-----

Gilles Cuniberti

European Order For Payment Procedure From the Businesses Perspective and Practice	451
---	-----

Karim Mahari

How can the best practices of legal professionals with judicial cooperation be operationalised to improve mutual trust?	455
---	-----

Arturo Picciotto

Incorporating European Uniform Procedures into National Procedural Systems and Practice: Best Practices a Solution for Harmonious Application	459
---	-----

Elena Alina Onțanu

Afterword

Approximation of Procedural Law in Europe	481
---	-----

Marcel Storme

Index	485
-------	-----