

Contents

Preface	v
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi
Chapter 1 The Historical Context of the Essays and the Essay	1
Chapter 2 Essays On the Law of Nature	33
Chapter 3 An Essay Concerning Human Understanding	79
Chapter 4 The Irreconciliation of the Essays and the Essay	135
Chapter 5 The Reconciliation of the Essay and the Treatises	153
Conclusion Repositioning Locke within the History of Moral and Political Philosophy	181
Appendix A Does Locke Really Hold to an Intellectualist View of Obligations?	187

Appendix B	Question 4 of the Essays Concerning the Law of Nature	193
Appendix C	Locke on Innate Ideas in the Essays Concerning the Law of Nature	199
Bibliography		205
Index		211