

Contents

Process and Procedures of the Task Force	xi
Introduction	1
Part I. THE PROFESSION FOR WHICH LAWYERS MUST PREPARE	9
An Overview of the Profession.....	11
Chapter 1 Lawyers and Legal Services: Growth, Change and Multicultural Diversity.....	13
A. Explosion in Numbers and Use of Legal Services.....	13
B. The Change in Gender Make-up.....	18
C. The Belated Opening to Minorities and Diversity.....	23
Chapter 2 The Diverse Practice Settings	29
A. Sole Practitioners and Small Firms.....	35
B. New Providers of Legal Services.....	47
C. Large and Middle-Sized Firms	73
D. In-House Counsel.....	88
E. Lawyers for Government.....	95
Chapter 3 Organization and Regulation of the Profession	103
A. The Beginnings of the Profession.....	103
B. The Bar's Identity in Learning, Skills and Professional Values	105
C. Law School: The Unifying Experience	111
D. The Judiciary: The Profession's Gatekeeper	114
E. The Survival of a Single Public Profession.	119
Part II. A VISION OF THE SKILLS AND VALUES NEW LAWYERS SHOULD SEEK TO ACQUIRE	121
Chapter 4 Formulating a Statement of Skills and Values	123
A. Reasons for a Statement	123
B. Focus of the Statement	124
C. Formulation of the Statement	125
D. Uses of the Statement	127
E. Abuses of the Statement to Be Avoided.....	131

Chapter 5	The Statement of Fundamental Lawyering Skills and Professional Values	135
	A. Organization of the Statement	135
	B. Overview of the Skills and Values Analyzed.....	138
	C. The Analysis of Skills and Values	141
Part III.	THE EDUCATIONAL CONTINUUM THROUGH WHICH LAWYERS ACQUIRE THEIR SKILLS AND VALUES.....	223
Chapter 6	The Process Prior to Law School.....	225
	A. Self-Assessment and Commitment to Self-Development	225
	B. The Need for Informed Choice	227
Chapter 7	Professional Development During Law School	233
	A. The Law Schools' Role in Professional Development	233
	B. Assessing Current Instruction in Skills and Values.....	236
	C. The Accreditation Process and Instruction in Skills and Values	260
	D. Employment Experience as a Complement to Law School.....	268
Chapter 8	The Transition from Law Student to Practitioner	273
	A. The Licensing Process	273
	B. Curricular Requirements for Bar Admission	274
	C. The Bar Examination	277
	D. Building the Continuum.....	284
	E. Transition Education for Bar Applicants and New Lawyers	285
Chapter 9	Professional Development After Law School...	305
	A. The Development of Continuing Legal Education	305
	B. The Growth in Mandatory CLE	309
	C. The Extent and Diversity of Current CLE Programs	312
	D. On-the-Job and In-House Training.....	314
	E. The Continuing Quest for Excellence.....	316

Chapter 10	The Need for a National Institute to Enhance the Process of Professional Development.....	319
Part IV.	RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE TASK FORCE	325
A.	Disseminating and Discussing the Statement of Skills and Values.....	327
B.	Choosing a Career in the Law and a Law School	328
C.	Enhancing Professional Development During the Law School Years.....	330
D.	Placing the Transition and Licensing Process in the Educational Continuum.....	334
E.	Striving for Professional Excellence After Law School	336
F.	Establishing an American Institute for the Practice of Law	337
APPENDICES.....		339
Appendix A	Bibliography	341
Appendix B	The American Bar Foundation's Study—Learning Lawyering: Where Do Lawyers Acquire Practice Skills?.....	379
Appendix C	Report on the Task Force's Hearings and Conferences.....	385
Appendix D	Questionnaire Used in the Task Force's Survey of Law Schools' Skills and Values Instruction	397
Appendix E	Practical Skills Training in Commonwealth Jurisdictions	405
Appendix F	A Mission Statement for an American Institute for the Practice of Law	413