

Contents |

Preface	xi
Introduction	1
PART 1: STRUCTURAL HORIZONTALITY	31
Chapter 1: Post-apartheid Constitutional Theory	33
Chapter 2: Horizontal application of fundamental rights and the resistance to neo-colonialism	55
Chapter 3: Re-reading the foundations of modern law	79
Chapter 4: Capital punishment and the horizontal application of the Constitution	101
PART 2: TEMPORAL HORIZONTALITY	121
Chapter 5: Law as sacrifice	123
Chapter 6: Fundamental contradictions	149
Chapter 7: Towards a phenomenology of legal plurality	191
Chapter 8: Post-apartheid law and reconciliation	233
Appendix: The impossibility of two together when it matters: A law and literature excursion	251
Bibliography	265
Table of cases, statutes and reports	281
Index	283