

Contents

|                             |       |
|-----------------------------|-------|
| List of Contributors | xiii  |
| Table of Cases       | xv    |
| Table of Legislation | xxiii |

I. LEGAL THEORY

|                                                                                    |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1. J.W. Harris's KelsenStanley L. Paulson                               | 3  |
| 2. Interpreting NormativityJulie Dickson                                | 22 |
| 3. Reductionism and Explanation in Legal TheoryBrian Bix                | 43 |
| 4. Scepticism and Scandinavian Legal RealistsJes Bjarup                 | 52 |
| 5. Judges' Use of Moral Arguments in Interpreting StatutesJeremy Horder | 69 |

II. PROPERTY

|                                                                                                              |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 6. Weak and Strong Conceptions of Property: An Essay inMemory of Jim HarrisRichard A. Epstein | 97  |
| 7. Property and Ownership: Marginal CommentsTony Honoré                                           | 129 |
| 8. The Morality of James Harris's Theory of PropertyDavid Lametti                                 | 138 |
| 9. Ownership, Co-Ownership, and the Justificationof Property RightsJames Penner               | 166 |
| 10. Plants, Torts, and Intellectual PropertyStephen R. Munzer                                     | 189 |
| 11. The Legacy of Penn v Lord BaltimoreEdwin Peel                                          | 218 |
| 12. Property, Personality, and ViolenceJoshua Getzler                                             | 246 |

III. PRECEDENT

13. Towards Principles of Overruling in a Civil Law Supreme Court 277
Isabelle Rorive
14. The Rationality of Tradition 297
Lionel Smith

IV. HUMAN RIGHTS

15. Judging Rights in a Democratic South Africa 317
Hugh Corder
16. Invoking Human Rights 332
John Eekelaar
17. The Infant in the Snow 348
Timothy Endicott
18. Matter Matters 367
Bernard Rudden
- James W. Harris 1940–2004* 381
- Bibliography of the works of James W. Harris* 385
- Index of Names* 387