

Contents

Preface vii

1 Life and Work 1

2 Justice 15

The Prisoner's Dilemma 16

The Original Position 20

Principles of Justice 23

3 The Original Position 26

Parameters of the Theory 27

Motivation 31

Proceduralism 35

Reflective Equilibrium and Stability 38

4 Principles of Justice 42

Options 42

Equal Liberty 50

Fair Equality of Opportunity 53

The Difference Principle 59

Just Savings 62

5 The Difference Principle in Focus	65
Nozick and Autonomy	66
Cohen and Motivational Instability	70
Dworkin and Resourcism	77
Experimental Approaches to Justice	82
6 The Original Position in Focus	85
Sandel and Communitarianism	86
Gilligan and Feminism	90
Nagel on the Personal and the Impersonal	95
Natural Duty and Political Obligation	100
7 Civil Disobedience and Punishment	107
Majority Rule	108
The Role of Civil Disobedience	111
King and the Civil Rights Movement	115
Punishment	119
8 Political Liberalism	124
A Moralized Modus Vivendi	125
Stability	129
Reasonable Pluralism	132
Overlapping Consensus	135
Rawls and Habermas	138
Autonomy and Religious Commitment	144
9 The Law of Peoples	151
Liberal Peoples	152
Non-Liberal Peoples	157
Just War	160
Global Distributive Justice	163
Postscript	167
Bibliography	169
Glossary	173
Index	178