

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 3

PART I Common Law and Civil Law

ONE The Common Law 15

TWO The Civil Law 29

THREE The Language of Law: Common and Civil 54

FOUR Legal Reasoning 75

PART II Constitutional Identity

FIVE The Constitution as Code 111

SIX Judicial Review 132

SEVEN Federalism 150

EIGHT The Alternative Constitution 172

NINE Equality Prevails 201

TEN Freedom Fights Back 224

ELEVEN The Jury 243

TWELVE Due Process Ascendant 259

THIRTEEN Coordinating the States 276

FOURTEEN Multiple Common Laws? 302

PART III

The Theory of the Common Law:
Liberalism and Its Alternatives

FIFTEEN

Feudalism in Land Law 319

SIXTEEN

The Triumph of Equity 338

SEVENTEEN

Contemporary Property 358

EIGHTEEN

The Frontiers of Property 376

NINETEEN

Contract as Law 395

TWENTY

Contract as Justice 413

TWENTY-ONE

Contractual Harm 426

TWENTY-TWO

Foundations of Tort Law 440

TWENTY-THREE

Economic Efficiency 452

TWENTY-FOUR

From Contributory to Comparative
Fault 472

TWENTY-FIVE

Disputed Boundaries: Punitive Damages 488

TWENTY-SIX

The American Civil Trial in Outline 502

PART IV

Criminal Law:

The Adversary System and Its Alternatives

TWENTY-SEVEN

Where Would You Rather Be Tried? 531

TWENTY-EIGHT

The Fate of Bernhard Goetz 549

TWENTY-NINE

Self-Defense: Domestic and International 568

SUMMARY

The Right and the Reasonable 591

Appendices

APPENDIX ONE

How to Read (and Brief) a Case 615

APPENDIX TWO

Common Law Method; or, How to Do
Things with Cases 625

APPENDIX THREE

The Interpretation of Statutes 642

INDEX 649