

Contents

Preface vii

Contents—Summary xi

Contents xiii

List of Abbreviations of Periodicals and Law Reports xv

1 THE COMMON LAWS OF EUROPE 1

Roman Law and Roman Universality 2

A Common Lex Non Scripta? 7

Mobility of People and Mobility of Laws 9

The Nature of the New Common Laws 12

The Early Expansion of the Ius Unum and the Common Law 14

The Essential Tradition of the Ius Commune 16

The Ius Commune, as Prototype 20

The Common Law, as Common Law 25

The Common Law Originating from England 32

The Common Law (droit commun) Originating from France 35

The Common Law (gemeine Recht) Originating from Germany 37

The Common Law (derecho común) Originating from Spain 40

Other Common Laws of Europe 41

2 THE COMMON LAWS OF THE WORLD 44

National Appropriation of Common Laws in Europe? 45

A Common, Pan-European Process of Appropriation 49

Territoriality and Appropriation 53

The Identity of the Common Laws Abroad 56

The Nature of the Common Laws Abroad 62

The Common Law as Common Law, in the World 63

The Droit Commun Originating from France, in the World 70

The Derecho Común Originating from Spain, in the World 75

Roman-Dutch Common Law, in the World 78

Pandectist Common Law, in the World 79

National Appropriation of Common Laws Abroad?
The U.S.A. Experience	84
Common Law in Federations and Confederations	88
Influence within the Commons Laws of the World	91

3 ON THE RELATIONS OF COMMON LAWS 95

The Common Law and the Ius Commune	97
The Common Law and other Continental Common Laws	103
The Ius Commune and other Continental Common Laws	105
Common Laws and Canon Law	108
Common Laws and Commercial Law	114
Common Laws and Feudal Law	116
Territories at the Confluence of Common Laws	118
Common Laws and Language	124
Common Laws and Legal Education	128
Common Laws and Talmudic Law	131
Common Laws and Islamic Law	134
Common Laws and Hindu Law	140
Contemporary Relations of Common Laws	142

SOME CONCLUDING REMARKS 143

Index	145
--------------	-----