

Contents

Series Editor's Preface

vii

Introduction

ix

PART I: THEORY OF SYMBOLIC COMMUNICATION IN LAW: A SOCIAL SYSTEMS PERSPECTIVE

- | | | |
|---|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1 | Constitution-Making and the Symbolic Rationality of Law:
A Systemic Differentiation of Law, Politics and Morality | 3 |
| 2 | The Symbolic Evolution of Political Identity from the Spirit of the Laws | 25 |
| 3 | Law and the Symbolization of Time: The Limits of Dealing with the Past and Future | 47 |

PART II: IDENTITY AND LAW: EUROPEAN REFLECTIONS ON DEMOS AND ETHNOS

- | | | |
|---|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 4 | Civil and Ethnic Traditions and Identities: Post-Communist
Constitution-Making in Central Europe | 71 |
| 5 | Identity, Constitution-Making and the Enlargement of the European Union | 93 |
| 6 | The Symbolic Power of European Law and Search of European Politics | 115 |

PART III: THE TEMPORALITY OF JUSTICE: BETWEEN RETROSPECTIVE LAWS AND PROSPECTIVE POLITICS

- | | | |
|---|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 7 | The Retrospectivity of Laws and the Temporality of Justice in Post-Communist Central Europe | 141 |
| 8 | Moral Paradoxes of Legal Justice: An Analysis of Restitutive
and Administrative Dealing with the Past | 165 |
| 9 | On Legal Symbolism and Social Theory: Concluding Remarks | 195 |

Bibliography

201

Index

221