

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE.....	iv
INTRODUCTION	1

Chapter

I THE BACKGROUND.....	2
-----------------------	---

II TRANSCAUCASIA BEFORE 1917	7
------------------------------------	---

The Armenians in Turkey. The origins of the Dashnaksutun. Georgian society. Origins of Georgian Socialism. Social and political life in Azerbaijan. The Revolution of 1905. The activities of the Dashnaks. Armeno-Azerbaijani enmity. The Hemmat. The Musavat. Russian colonization. The Great War. The Zavriev mission. Agreements regarding Turkey.

III THE MARCH REVOLUTION	32
--------------------------	----

The Ozakom. The Tiflis Soviet. The Mensheviks. The Bolsheviks. The Caucasian army. The Armenians. The Azerbaijanis. The Baku Soviet. The Musavat.

IV THE NOVEMBER REVOLUTION	54
----------------------------------	----

The organization of local government. The Bolsheviks proclaim the right of peoples to self-determination. The Transcaucasian Commissariat. The Georgian Mensheviks seize power in Tiflis. The struggle for the Caucasian army. The struggle for the Soviets. The struggle for the Trade Unions. Situation in Baku. The Baku Soviet versus the City Duma. The Musavat and the Bolsheviks. The March Events. Bolshevik monopoly of power.

V TRANSCAUCASIA AT THE CROSSROADS	79
---	----

American attitude towards intervention in Russia. The growth of separatism. The Erzjinjan armistice. The Shamkhor massacre. Turkey proposes peace. Turkey breaks the Armistice. The organization of the the Seim. The Seim decides to make peace. The treaty of Brest-

Litovsk. The Trebizond Conference. Transcaucasia's concessions. Transcaucasia breaks the negotiations. Transcaucasia declares war. The question of independence. Transcaucasia proclaims its independence. The first Transcaucasian Government.

VI THE BATUM CONFERENCE	109
The re-opening of the negotiations. Transcaucasia and Russia.. German mediation. Georgia seeks German help. The Turkish ultimatum.
VII DISINTEGRATION OF TRANSCAUCASIA.....	118
The breakdown of the Federation. Georgia proclaims independence. Germano - Georgian agreements. The Transcaucasian States make peace with Turkey.
VIII THE DEFENCE AND FALL OF BAKU.....	128
The Soviet rule in Baku. The offensive against Ganja. The Ardahan conspiracy. The invitation of Bicherakhov. German interests in Baku. The Turkish offensive against Baku. Conflict within Baku. The fall of the Soviet. The Centro-Caspian Dictatorship. The British in Baku. The fall of Baku. The fate of the Twenty-six Commissars. The Azerbaijani Government enters Baku.
IX INDEPENDENT GEORGIA	147
The Germans arrive. Germano - Georgian negotiations. The Batum plebiscite. Change in Turkish attitude. Georgia and Azerbaijan. Georgia and. Armenia.
X THE GERMAN OCCUPATION OR GEORGIA.....	157
The case of the Georgian landowners. The case of the British prisoners. The Menshevik estimate of the German occupation.
XI BRITISH OCCUPATION OF TRANSCAUCASIA....	163
General Thomson's declaration. The British arrive in Baku. The Azerbaijani Parliament. British interest in Baku. Georgia and the British. The Allies and Armenia.
XII THE ARMENO-GEORGIAN CONFLICT.....	174
Georgia calls a Caucasian Conference. Armenia holds back Rebellion in Borchalo and the Armeno -Georgian war. The British intervention. The Armeno-Georgian conflict and the Second International.

XIII THE GEORGIAN STATE 184

The Menshevik view of power. The decline of the Soviets. The bases of Menshevik power. The land reform. Agrarian unrest. The economic position of Georgia. Georgian nationalism. Georgian imperialism. Opposition to Menshevik rule. Bolshevik revolts of November 1919 and May 1920. The failure of Russia to intervene.

XIV INDEPENDENT ARMENIA 211

Armenia's position. Armenia's post-war claims. Armenia and Azerbaijan. Armenia and Denikin. The origins of the Armenian Communist Party. The uprising of May, 1920.

XV INDEPENDENT AZERBAIJAN 221

The Government. The land reform. Agrarian unrest. Economic conditions. Azerbaijan and Armenia. The Italian mandate. Azerbaijan and Persia. The Baku Communists.

XVI TRANSCAUCASIA VOLUNTEER ARMY 233

Bolshevik offensive in Chernomorie. The resolution of Sochi Socialists, Conference between Gegechkori and Alexeiev. Conflict over Sochi. British intervention. Denikin invades Daghestan. The British intervene. The treaty of June 16, 1919. The Bolsheviks, Transcaucasia and Denikin.

XVII TRANSCAUCASIA - VERSAILLES 253

The two Armenian delegations. Armenian demands. The mandate over Armenia. The Harbord Report. The United States decline the mandate over Armenia. The treaty of Sevres. The claims of Azerbaijan. The claims of Persia. Allied concern over the threat of Bolshevism. The Georgians in Paris. Defence talks. Armeno-Georgian differences. Georgia and the League of Nations.

XVIII THE FALL OF AZERBAIJAN.....	276
The Bolsheviks prepare for revolt. Dissension within the Azerbaijani Government. Chicherin's first note. Khoiskii's note. The last act of Azerbaijani diplomacy. The Bolshevik ultimatum. Russian troops enter Azerbaijan.
XIX THE FALL OF ARMENIA	286
Position of the Communist Party of Armenia. The Turkish attack. Proclamation of a Soviet regime. The treaty of Alexandropol. The agreement between Russia and the Dashnaks.
XX GEORGIA AND SOVIET RUSSIA	294
Russia refuses to recognize Georgia. Georgia declines to interfere in the civil war, the treaty of May 7, 1920. The Secret Agreement. Kirov in Tiflis. Russo-Georgian disputes.
XXI THE CONQUEST OF GEORGIA	314
The Communist Party of Georgia. The Gekker Plan. The rebellion of February 11, 1921. The proclamation of a Soviet regime. The Dashnaks' rebellion in Armenia. The Red Army captures Tiflis. Lenin's directives. The terms of capitulation. The departure of the Menshevik Government.
XXII CONCLUSION.....	329
BIBLIOGRAPHY	332
INDEX—GENERAL	346
INDEX—PERSONAL NAMES	352
ABOUT THE AUTHOR	360