

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VOL. I.

In the course of the long years of cataloguing many people helped my work in various ways, not all of whom can be acknowledged here.

Thanks are due to Dr. Eva Apor, the former head of the Oriental Collection, for having allowed me to work on this material, as well as for her help in getting

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS VII

I cannot thank enough Dr. Kinga Dévényi, the current head of the Oriental Collection, who has not only encouraged me to continue my work, but took her time to discuss it with me. Without her help this book would hardly have been completed.

INTRODUCTION X

The history of the collection ix

Notes on the method of description x

System of transliteration xi

Tibetist Péter-Dániel Szántó, who was always kind to share with me his creative

REFERENCES XIII

A number of senior and younger scholars in the Inner Asian Department at the

ABBREVIATIONS AND SYMBOLS XV

should like to thank Professor György Kara for his encouragement and the Indologist Dr. Gergely Hidas, the Sinologists Dr. Gábor Kosa and Marianne Varga, as well as the Mongolists Dr. Alice Sárközy, Dr. Ágnes Birtalan and Olivér Kápolnás. I also wish to thank the Tibetist Béla Kelenyi for his valuable remarks.

CATALOGUE (TIB. 1-300) 1

I should also like to dedicate my thanks to my colleagues in the Oriental Collection for their patience, especially to Dr. Ágnes Kelecsényi for her suggestions with Sanskrit titles and to Dr. Erdenesuvd Luvsandalash, to whom I could always turn with my questions concerning Mongolistics.

Several institutions have provided the funding that made the completion of this work possible. I should like to express my thanks to the Komatsu Chiko Foundation, the Pro Bibliotheca Foundation of the Library of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, the Hungarian Scientific Research Fund and the National Cultural Fund.

I am also greatly indebted to Goue Smith and to the Tibetan Buddhist Research Center in New York for generously allowing me access to their database.