

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE	ix
INTRODUCTION	1
CHAPTER I: LEGAL NORMS AND LEGAL SYSTEM	3
1. Introduction	3
2. The Theory of Sense for Prescriptions	7
a) Convention-T 8 / b) A semantics for deontic logic 9 / c) Does convention-T provide a complete theory of meaning? 10
3. The Theory of Force, and Prescriptions	12
a) The illocutionary force of prescriptions 12 / b) Intentions and meanings 14 / c) Relevance and implicit meaning 16
4. Conclusions	19
APPENDIX A: A FORMAL THEORY OF SENSE FOR PRESCRIPTIONS	21
a) Language LN	21
b) Open Sentences	23
c) Satisfaction and Compliance	25
i) A subset of LN 25 / ii) Corresponding d-formulae 25 / iii) Satisfaction and the truth of d-formulae 27 / iv) Compliance and the efficacy of d-formulae and i-formulae 28
APPENDIX B: RELEVANCE, ARGUMENTATION AND NORMATIVE SYSTEMS	32
a) Relevance Beyond Logic	32
b) The Logic of Relevance	36
c) Logic Plus Relevance	40
d) Relevance and Normative Systems	44
CHAPTER II: A LOGICAL ANALYSIS OF LEGAL PROPOSITIONS	47
1. Introduction	47
2. Deontic Legal Statements and Conceptual Legal Statements	47
3. Pure Legal Statements and Applicative Legal Statements	48
4. Truth-Conditions of Legal Statements	49
5. Legal Statements and Contradictions: The Law Speaks With Many Voices	56
6. Legal Statements and Normative Gaps: The Law Is Silent	57

	a) Kelsen: gaps as fiction 59 / b) Dworkin and the completeness of the law 63 / c) Legal reasons, sources and gaps 66
7.	Legal Statements and Vagueness: The Law Speaks With an Uncertain Voice	72
	a) Accepting the conclusion of sorites 75 / b) Rejecting the argument: Degrees of truth 77 / c) Rejecting the premises 79
8.	Excursus on Gaps of Cognition	86
9.	Conclusions	88
APPENDIX:
	TRUTH-CONDITIONS AND THE LOGICAL ANALYSIS OF LEGAL STATEMENTS	91
CHAPTER III: LEGAL DYNAMICS 101
1.	Introduction: Legal Order and Legal System	101
2.	Identifying Legal Orders	103
3.	The Applicability of Legal Norms	105
4.	Applicable But Invalid Norms	108
	a) Customary norms 109 / b) Standards of morality 109 / c) Irregular norms 110 / d) Received Norms 111
5.	Valid But Inapplicable Norms	112
	a) Cancelled norms 112 / b) Irrelevant derived norms 113
6.	Conclusions	114
CHAPTER IV: THE PRIMACY OF THE CONSTITUTION
		117
1.	The Constitution as Precommitment	117
2.	Possible Constitutional Worlds	119
3.	The Thesis of Constitutional Accessibility	121
4.	Conclusions	128
CHAPTER V: CONSTITUTIONAL INTERPRETATION
		131
1.	Introduction	131
2.	The Noble Dream	134
	a) The Noble Dream of metaphysical realism 135 / b) Dworkin: 'The Noblest Dreamer' 139 / c) Critique 143
3.	The Nightmare	147
	a) Skepticism as therapy: Jerome Frank 148 / b) Skepticism in Critical Legal Studies : „Law is Politics“ 149 / c) Interpretation as creation 151 / d) Critique 152

TABLE OF CONTENTS

xiii

4.	The Vigil	156
5.	Intention in Constitutional Interpretation	160
6.	Judicial Review of the Constitutionality of the Laws	167
7.	Conclusions: Modest Objectivity and Limited Indeterminacy	169
BIBLIOGRAPHY		173
INDEX OF NAMES		197