

Contents

List of Tables	vii
1 Introduction	1
James W. Peterson and Jacek Lubecki
Nationalism, Imperialism, and Globalization in the Shaping of Eastern Europe	1
Background of Theories	9
2 Dialectics of Globalization: Empires and Nationalism	13
Jacek Lubecki
Control by Empires Prior to WW I, 1815–1914	13
Emergence of Nation-States after 1918	29
Nazi/Fascist Empire, 1930s and 1940s	43
Communist Empire, 1945–89	49
Post-communist Expressions of Nationalism after 1989	64
3 Liberalism and Anti-Liberalism	69
Jacek Lubecki
The Spread of Liberalism and Its Discontentment	69
Successes of Liberalism and Persistence of Anti-liberalism	77
Conclusion: Eastern Europe between Nationalism and Globalization	91
4 Ethnic Challenges from Within and Without	93
James W. Peterson
Ethnic Warfare and Conflict within the States	93
Migratory Pressures from the External Environment	104
Theoretical Conclusion	112

5 Domestic and Global Security Challenges	113
James W. Peterson
Terrorist Threats inside the State	113
Russian Imperial Challenges after Crimea Takeover, 2014	122
Theoretical Conclusion	133
6 The Cloud of COVID-19 as a Global Pressure on the Region and Its Individual States, 2020 and After	135
James W. Peterson
Key Historical Differences	135
Impact of COVID-19 on Democratic Ratings	136
Selected Case Studies of Political and Administrative Decisions during the 2020–22 Virus	137
Election Outcomes during the Crisis Years	140
Theoretical Conclusion	142
7 Conclusion: Imperialism, Globalization, and Nationalism in Eastern Europe in the Twenty-First Century	143
James W. Peterson
Imperialism	144
Globalization	147
Nationalism	149
Theoretical Conclusions	152
Bibliography	153
Index	160