

Contents

List of contributors	xii
Foreword: Critical social work and social justice JAN FOOK	xxv
Acknowledgements	xxix
Introduction: Critical social work and the politics of transformation STEPHEN A. WEBB	xxx
PART I
Historical, social and political influences	1
1 Welfare words, neoliberalism and critical social work Paul Michael Garrett	3
2 Neoliberal relations of poverty and the welfare state Sanford F. Schram	15
3 Marxist social work: an international and historical perspective Tom Vickers	24
4 Critical social work in the U.S.: challenges and conflicts Michael Reisch	35
5 The rise of the global state paradigm: implications for social work Paul Stepney	46
PART II
Mapping the theoretical and conceptual terrain	59
6 Critical theory and critical social work Edward Granter	61

Contents

7	Re-imagining social theory for social work Christopher Thorpe	72
8	Anarchism and social work Mark Baldwin	82
9	Relational constructivism and relational social work Björn Kraus	93
10	Extending Bourdieu for critical social work Stan Houston	105
11	Why psychosocial thinking is critical Liz Frost	115
12	Feminist contributions to critical social work Vivienne E. Cree and Ruth Phillips	126
13	The politics of Michel Foucault Paul Michael Garrett	137
14	Resistance, biopolitics and radical passivity Stephen A. Webb	148
PART III
Methods of engagement and modes of analysis		161
15	Critical race theory and social work Monique Constance-Huggins	163
16	Indigenous peoples and communities: a critical theory perspective Brent Angell	171
17	Postcolonial feminist social work Anne C. Deepak	182
18	Critical discourse analysis and social work Karen D. Roscoe	194
19	Controversy analysis: contributions to the radical agenda Natalia Farmer	206
20	Narrative analysis and critical social work Sam Larsson	218

PART IV*Critical contexts for practice and policy 231*IV.1 Issues, geographies and politics

- 21 Green social work, political ecology and environmental justice 233
Lena Dominelli
- 22 Securitising social work: counter terrorism, extremism, and radicalisation 244
Jo Finch and David McKendrick
- 23 Issues of ageing, social class, and poverty 256
Malcolm Carey
- 24 Critical social work in the new urban age 267
Charlotte Williams
- 25 Parents organizing a grassroots movement to reform child welfare 278
David Tobis
- 26 Incorporating rurality into a critical ethics of intellectual disability care 289
Lia Bryant and Bridget Garnham
- 27 Neoliberal regimes of welfare in Scandinavia 302
Edgar Marthinsen
- 28 Performativity and sociomaterial becoming: what technologies do 312
Lucas D. Introna

IV.2 Justice, empowerment and service users 325

- 29 Challenging scapegoating mechanisms: mimetic desire and self-directed groupwork 327
Stan Houston and Stephen Coulter
- 30 Vulnerability and the myth of autonomy 339
Ian Cummins
- 31 Foodbanks, austerity and critical social work 349
Sarah Pollock

Contents

- 32 Ageing, veterans and offending: challenges for critical social work 361
Paul Taylor and Jason Powell
- 33 "Do you really want this in front of a judge?" Age assessment with unaccompanied refugee children 372
Calum Lindsay
- 34 Toward a multispecies home: bedbugs and the politics of non-human relations 390
Heather Lynch
- 35 Adoption, child rescue, maltreatment and poverty 401
June Thoburn and Brigid Featherstone
- 36 Critical debates in child protection: the production of risk in changing times 412
Emily Keddell and Tony Stanley
- 37 LGBT issues and critical social work 424
Urban Nothdurfter

PART V

Professional education and socialisation

435

- 38 Promoting activism and critical social work education 437
Christine Morley
- 39 Social work education and the challenge of neoliberal hegemony 449
Jane Fenton
- 40 Embedding critical reflection across the curriculum 462
Fiona Gardner
- 41 Contesting doxa in social work education 473
Liz Beddoe
- 42 Insinuating: understanding approaches to critical practice 484
Cynthia J. Gallop
- 43 Responding to neoliberalism in social work education:
a neo-Gramscian approach 496
John Wallace and Bob Pease

PART VI

Future challenges, directions and transformations 509

- 44 Reprioritising social work practice: towards a critical reconnection of the personal and the social 511

Peter Beresford and Suzy Croft

- 45 Responding to political polarization: the new social work radicalism 523

Iain Ferguson

- 46 Popular social work 536

Michael Lavalette

- 47 Challenging harmful political contexts through activism 549

Linda Briskman

- 48 Imperialism, colonialism and a Marxist epistemology of
'critical peace' 560

Vasilios Ioakimidis and Nicos Trimikliniotis

- Index* 572