

— CONTENT

Acknowledgements

09

INTRODUCTION

*Caroline Hornstein Tomić,
Robert Pichler,
Sarah Scholl-Schneider*
Hopes and Realities of Return:
Contexts, approaches and
conceptual considerations

11

TRANSF/ER/ORMATION PROJECTS

Vytis Čiubrinskas
Returning with Resources:
Social remittances and the uncertain belonging of
transatlantic remigrants

43

Klaus Roth
Returning Home to a Foreign Country:
Southeast European migrants' return to the life-world of post-socialism –
the example of Bulgaria

73

Caroline Hornstein Tomić
'The World Doesn't Owe You
Anything':
A family's (re-)migration from
and to Croatia

95

BE-LONGING: GENERATION, FAMILY, SPACE

Elisabeth Kirndörfer
Navigating the Space Between:
Biographies of return and the
turning point of 1989

131

Sarah Scholl-Schneider
Restoring the Vanished to View:
The 'return' of the past through practices of visiting by Sudeten
Germans to the Czech Republic

161

Sara Reith
Migration Background as a Career
Factor:
German-Russian remigration to Kazakhstan between enhanced socio-economic status and the transnational pursuit of home

185

IMPACT OF STATE DISSOLUTION

Sara Bernard

Times of Hope and Despair:
Return migration to socialist
Serbia and the impact of the 1990s
conflicts on returnees

207

Robert Pichler

The Fading Power of 'Kurbet':
A case study of Albanian remigrants
to a Macedonian village

235

Thomas Schmidinger

Forced Return to Empty Villages:
A case study of the Gorani
in Kosovo

263

Petra Dobruská

Mobility of the Roma from a Slovak Village and its Influence
on Local Communities

285

POST-SOCIALIST LABOUR AND EDUCATIONAL MIGRATION

Remus Gabriel Anghel, Anatolie Coşciug

Patterns and Mechanisms of Return
Migration to Romania

319

Aleksandar Božić

Transitioning Back:
Remigration of tertiary-educated Bosnians with experience of international academic mobility

345

Aleksandra Galasińska

'Home, (Bitter)sweet Home':
Voices of post-EU enlargement
returnees to Poland

379

EPILOGUE

*Dagmar Gramshammer-Hohl,
Caroline Hornstein Tomić,
Elisabeth Kirndörfer*

Literary 'Home-trackers':
Narratives of return in the era of
post-socialist transformation

405

BIBLIOGRAPHY

431

NOTES ON THE CONTRIBUTORS

461