

Table of Contents

Karolina M. Cern
Introduction: A Typically European Approach...? 9

Bibliography 19

Part I 21

Bartosz Wojciechowski, Skirgaile Žalimienė
The Role of Democratic Thinking in the Shaping of Legal Awareness and Legal Recognition 23

Bibliography 45

Paulius Griciūnas
National Identity: Constitutional Patriotism or Dialogue on Values 49

Bibliography 99

Anna Kalisz
The Margin of Appreciation – a Safety Anchor for Constitutional Identity in Semiotic and Legal Contexts 111

Bibliography 131

Milena Korycka-Zirk
The Political Versus Proportionality – Methods of Justifying
Conflicts of Constitutional Values 133

Bibliography 155

Martin Škop

The Indifference of Law to Literature	157
Bibliography	173
Part II	175
Anna Chmielarz-Grochal
The Limits to Constitutional Amendments and the Question of Constitutional Identity and Citizens' Consciousness (the Polish case)	177
Bibliography	201
Marcin Górski
"Tempering Steel" – on Shaping the Standard of Interpretation of the Convention as Exemplified by the Legal Recognition of Same-Sex Relationships	207
Bibliography	233
Vygantė Milašiūtė
Freedom of the Rule of Law-Promoting Expression of Prosecutors under European Law	235
Bibliography	263
Rasa Ragulskytė-Markovienė, Jurgita Paužaitė-Kulvinskienė
Right of Access to Justice in Environmental Matters as One of the Forms of Public Participation in Governance and an Instrument for Upholding the Values of the European Union	265
Bibliography	289
Jarosław Sułkowski
Participatory Budgeting as a Tool for Increasing Constitutional Awareness	291

Bibliography 311