

Contents

List of figures

Notes on contributors

Foreword

STEWART M. HOOVER

Acknowledgments

ix

x

xiii

xvi

PART 1

Religious identity in media cultures

1

1 Relating media, religion, and culture

3

Consuming Oprah's products, consuming Oprah's spirit 17

KATHRYN LOFTON

Telegraphing as spirit 19

JEREMY STOLOW

2 Making and articulating religious identity

21

When Gods fall (off their bike) 32

PETE WARD

Digital storytelling and narratives of identity: Abel's story 34

LYNN SCHOFIELD CLARK

3 Believing and practicing in a digital world

36

Mom blogs and the religion of everyday life 47

DEBORAH WHITEHEAD

Online puja and puja online: believing and practicing in a digital world 49

GRACE CHIOU

PART 2

Religion in the midst of change

51

4 Old and new media

53

Gaming the end times 65

RACHEL WAGNER

Codex to Kindle 67

MICHAEL HEMENWAY

5 Stability and change 69

Altmuslim: media spaces for a modern Muslim voice 82

NABIL ECHCHAIBI

Religious tracts in the eighteenth century 84

DAVID MORGAN

6 Organized religion in the age of digital media 86

Wicca and religious freedom networking in the digital age 99

SARAH M. PIKE

Advertising that "I'm a Mormon" 101

BENJAMIN THEVENIN

PART 3

Ethics and esthetics 103

7 To censor, shape, or engage with media and the arts? 105

Koshering the cell phone 119

HEIDI A. CAMPBELL

Muslim monsters 121

SOPHIA SHAFI

8 Reading, listening, watching 123

Creating mythology through cinematography 136

S. BRENT PLATE

Katy Perry's Firework 138

DAN CLANTON

9 Case studies 140

Glossary of key terms 147

Annotated bibliography 152

Index 156