

Contents

Tables		x
Acknowledgments		xv
Introduction		xvii
Part I	OVERVIEW	1
1. The Family and Working Women during and after Socialist Industrialization and Ideology
Barbara Łobodzińska		3
Part II	BULGARIA	47
2. Women in Bulgaria
Bistra Anachkova		55
Part III	CZECH REPUBLIC AND SLOVAKIA	69
3. Women and Family—The Czech Version of Development and Chances for Improvement
Marie Čermáková		75
4. Women's Equality, Work, and Family in the Czech Republic
Alena Heitlinger		87

Part IV GERMANY
(FORMER GERMAN DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC)	101
5. East German Women—Chief Losers in German Unification Hanna Behrend	113
6. The Family in the German Democratic Republic from a Western Point of View Barbara Ketelhut	123
Part V	HUNGARY
	131
7. The Position of Hungarian Women in the Process of Regime Change Katalin Koncz	139
Part VI	LITHUANIA
	149
8. Women and Family in Lithuania Irena Juozeliuniene and Vida Kanapiene	155
Part VII	POLAND
	165
9. The Impact of Socioeconomic Restructuring on Polish Women Anna M. Zajicek and Toni M. Calasanti	179
10. Women and Families in Poland: Pressing Problems and Possible Solutions Jill M. Bystydzienski	193
Part VIII	ROMANIA
	205
11. Participation of Women in the Workforce: The Case of Romania Doina Pasca Harsanyi	213
Part IX	FORMER YUGOSLAVIA
	219
12. Redomestication of Women and Democratization in Postsocialist Slovenia Maca Jogan	229
13. Women and Work in Former Yugoslavia and Their Present Situation Andjelka Milić	237

14. Women, Work, and Family in Former Yugoslavia Joy B. Reeves	245
Part X
CONCLUSION	259
15. Equal Opportunities: Obstacles and Remedies Barbara Łobodzińska	261
Appendix: Statistical Information on Central Eastern Europe	275
References	285
Index	301
About the Contributors	311