
Contents

| | |
|---|-------|
| List of contributors | xi |
| Acknowledgements | xxxiv |
| Introduction to disability policy through a human rights lens Karen R. Fisher and Sally Robinson | 1 |
| PART I HUMAN RIGHTS Sophie Mitra and Sally Robinson | |
| 1 Narrative 1: Mia's piece – Candice, “Defying Gravity” and I Mia Boonen | 15 |
| 2 Knowledge production and human rights enhancement: the role and potentialities of emancipatory disability research Mario Biggeri, Federico Ciani, Giampiero Griffo and Sunil Deepak | 17 |
| 3 A journey together – co-creation and experiential knowledge of people with intellectual disabilities in social policy María Gómez-Carrillo de Castro | 33 |
| 4 Accessibility policies in Brazil: negotiating collective access through the principles of Disability Justice for a Brazilian Center for Disability Studies Marivete Gesser and Anahí Guedes de Mello | 49 |
| 5 Narrative 2: Evil: disabled villains in media Em Dewhurst | 65 |
| 6 Developing a participatory indicators-based framework for monitoring disability rights Paula Campos Pinto and Maria Engrácia Cardim | 67 |
| 7 Disabled person-led monitoring of the UNCRPD in Aotearoa New Zealand: maximising the potential of civil society in the implementation of Article 33.3 Robbie Francis Watene, Brigit Mirfin-Veitch and Umi Asaka | 85 |
| 8 Narrative 3: If my childhood can have CRPD's company Honglu Zhu | 100 |
| 9 The right of people with disabilities to participate in cultural life: is Cinderella going to the ball? Delia Ferri and Ann Leahy | 102 |

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 10 | When the state does not care: disability rights in a context of multi-layered crises, instability and disablism Grace Khawam and Supriya Akerkar | 118 |
| 11 | Decentralization, empowerment and grassroots engagement: advocacy organizations navigating the implementation of codified disability rights in Malawi Sarah I. Huque | 135 |
| 12 | From enabling access to enabling rights: Singapore's practical approach to disability policy Daryl W.J. Yang, Kuansong Victor Zhuang, Gerard Goggin and Meng Ee Wong | 151 |
| 13 | An accessible public transit system as a right for people with disabilities in Taiwan Kuo-yu (Lisa) Wang and Pey-chun Pan | 166 |
| 14 | Narrative 4: The effect of disability policy on lives Chien-Ju Chou | 183 |
| 15 | The EU framework of people with disabilities' rights – an intertemporal equilibrium between regulatory and policy paradigms Gabriel Amitsis and Fotini Marini | 186 |
| 16 | The influence of disability models in Indonesian past and present: disability rights law-making and policy-making Abi Marutama, Antoni Tsaputra and Lengga Pradipta | 202 |
| 17 | The Accessible Canada Act: a political expression of disability rights as human rights Michael J. Prince | 217 |
| 18 | Narrative 5: Locked-in, locked-down: lived experience of a non-speaker Tim Chan | 233 |
| 19 | From international standard to national practice: the role of national disability institutions in making the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities a reality in South and Central America Renata Anahí Bregaglio Lazarte, Paula Lucía Camino Morgado and Renato Antonio Constantino Caycho | 234 |
| 20 | Narrative 6: Affection and emancipation: the friendship of four disabled women Karla Garcia Luiz, Laureane Marília de Lima Costa, Mariana Lúcia Agnese Costa e Rosa and Thaís Becker Henriques Silveira | 251 |
| 21 | Decolonizing disability rights policies through indigenous theorization: the case of Zimbabwe Martin Musengi | 256 |

PART II WELFARE

Karen R. Fisher and Olivia Geehan

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 22 | Narrative 7: Disabled Howl – AS1428.1 2021 and all that jazz Peter Raisbeck | 272 |
| 23 | From care and welfare to independent living? Interpreting and assessing the human right to live independently and be included in the community Yvette Maker | 274 |
| 24 | Sexuality and relationships: informing rights-based policy and practice through research with and by people with intellectual disability in Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand Patsie Frawley and Brigit Mirfin-Veitch | 289 |
| 25 | Narrative 8: A quiet genocide: the power of segregation Cindy Liu | 303 |
| 26 | Engaged advocacy: a framework for inclusion of people from refugee and asylum-seeking backgrounds in disability policy Maree Higgins, Mahmoud Murad, Kim Robinson, Angela Dew, Katherine Boydell, Fiona McKay, Joanne Watson, Mariano Coello, Louisa Smith, Kelley Johnson and Ruth Wells | 305 |
| 27 | Narrative 9: My work advocating for the Syrian community Mahmoud Murad, assisted by Miream Salameh and Maree Higgins, translated by Miream Salameh | 322 |
| 28 | The Australian National Disability Insurance Scheme and disability identity: how welfare policy impacts narratives of disability Tessa-May Zirnsak | 330 |
| 29 | Tracing the welfare–rights connection in American disability policymaking David Pettinicchio | 346 |
| 30 | Questioning the dominant welfare discourse on personalization and autonomy embodied in personal budget policy Toon Benoot and Rudi Roose | 361 |
| 31 | Negotiating rights in education: an examination of U.S. education disability policy Catherine Kramarczuk Voulgarides | 374 |
| 32 | Narrative 10: My education story Alexander Elliott | 387 |
| 33 | Preventing catastrophe: the welfare state and disaster risk for people with disabilities Zachary A. Morris | 389 |

- 34 Strategic human rights-based policy reforms for making Australian universities equally accessible to students, staff, and faculty who are Indigenous people with disability 402
Sheelagh Daniels-Mayes, Paul Harpur and Michael Ashley Stein
- 35 Narrative 11: The “lucky” one 418
Ayah Wehbe
- 36 Exploring equality and non-discrimination of disabled students in policy and practice in public universities in Uganda 421
Paul Emong and Anica Zeyen
- 37 Participation in personalization of minority cultural groups: lived experience and diversity in the UK 437
Martin Partridge, Mahuya Kanjilal and Elaine Arnall
- 38 Materializing change: exploring human rights-based approaches to improve built environment accessibility at the neighbourhood scale 452
Mary Ann Jackson, Erin Wilson and Flavia Marcello
- 39 Narrative 12: The draining expectations placed upon marginalised groups 469
Mac Zamani
- 40 Alternative community living practices in Taiwan: rethinking de-institutionalization and the human rights model 470
Heng-hao Chang and Yi-Chun Chou
- 41 Mainstreaming disability in Indonesian development: rethinking disability citizenship to move beyond a welfare focus 485
Antoni Tsaputra and Eban Pollard
- 42 Housing deficit for people with disabilities in a radically neoliberal country: Chile’s case 501
Francisca Valdebenito-Acosta, Julio Hasbún-Mancilla and Joao Acharan-Riffo
- 43 Inclusion of students with visual impairment in Indian higher education: a critical inquiry from a human rights perspective 517
Aneesh Peter and Catherine Elisa John

PART III HEALTH

Sally Robinson

- 44 Narrative 13: Voice, choice and a better outcome 536
Raelene West
- 45 Making disability known: medicalisation of disability and the development of the International Classification of Functioning 539
Jennifer Smith-Merry

| | | |
|--|--|-----|
| 46 | Disabilities, evidence-making and quality of life: the three core human rights principles framework Luciano Bottini Filho | 551 |
| 47 | Establishing a human rights-based approach in healthcare: a UK example moving beyond policy and into private spaces Eleanor Brown and Jo Ferrie | 565 |
| 48 | Narrative 14: Technology in the lives of people with disabilities Brooke Ellison | 581 |
| 49 | Disability and human rights: the right to benefit from scientific progress Anne M. Bryden, Jennifer French and Brian Gran | 583 |
| 50 | Chasing a runaway train: disability policy grapples with accelerated prenatal genetic technologies Kara B. Ayers and Monica C. Schneider | 600 |
| 51 | Care robots as enabling assistive technology: implications for quality of life and disability policy Naonori Kodate, Hasheem Mannan, Sarah Donnelly, Yurie Maeda and Diarmuid O'Shea | 615 |
| 52 | Narrative 15: Disability rights and robotics: being there without being there Sophie Savage and Tillie Curran | 632 |
| 53 | 'It's about quality of life rather than length of life': using and refusing policy discourse in the lives of children labelled with life-limiting and/or life-threatening conditions Katherine Runswick-Cole, Dan Goodley, Kirsty Liddiard and Sally Whitney | 636 |
| 54 | Inclusive sexuality education: achieving sexual justice, sexual pleasure and sexual agency for women with disability Denise Beckwith and Nicole Laurance | 653 |
| 55 | Narrative 16: In her lifetime Lee Tsourvakas | 667 |
| 56 | Pain management for palliative care patients with disabilities: revisiting morphine prescription policies in developing contexts Julieth Musengi and Martin Musengi | 669 |
| PART IV ECONOMIC INCLUSION Karen R. Fisher and Bella Bauer | | |
| 57 | Narrative 17: Supported or stuck? Disability employment policy for young people Sionainn Jans | 684 |

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 58 | Economics of inclusion Daniel Mont | 686 |
| 59 | Heightism, hierarchies and human rights: how a normalcy of disability infringes on the rights of people with dwarfism Erin Pritchard | 691 |
| 60 | Post-school transition process in a pandemic: how can young people with disability be better supported? Helen Dickinson, Catherine Smith, Amy Marks and Jess Mitchell | 706 |
| 61 | The right to work “on an equal basis with others”: examining disability employment policies in Australia through the lens of a health and economic crisis Sue Olney and Alexandra Devine | 721 |
| 62 | Narrative 18: Sanist wonderland Damian Mellifont | 739 |
| 63 | Does the CRPD matter? A comparison of sheltered workshop policies in Japan, Taiwan, and South Korea Yi-Chun Chou, Jun Nakagawa and Eun-Ju Yoo | 741 |
| 64 | Disability as an enabler of career success and inclusion Daniel Samosh, Mukta Kulkarni, Alecia Santuzzi and Brent Lyons | 756 |
| 65 | Narrative 19: I want a job Sadiel Albakri | 772 |
| 66 | Social entrepreneurship between earning a living and emancipation: impact of microfinance on people with disabilities in Kenya Yvonne Wechuli, Sellah Luswet, Halimu Shauri and Elisabeth Wacker | 773 |
| 67 | Advancing income security policy using universal design: the case of the Ontario Disability Support Programme in Ontario, Canada Tracy Smith-Carrier | 789 |
| 68 | Narrative 20: Living with a disability: what difference would a guaranteed livable income make? Joe Foster | 805 |
| 69 | A human rights-based approach to assistive technology provision in global policy Catherine Holloway, Giulia Barbareschi, Oriol Valles Codina, Nora Colton, Arne Henning Eide, Zuleima Dafne Morgado-Ramirez, Jamie Danemayer, Rainer Kattel and Victoria Austin | 807 |
| 70 | Conclusion on disability policy Sally Robinson and Karen R. Fisher | 823 |
| | Index | 830 |