

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiv

Part I: Impact of restructuring on employees and organizations 1

- |   |    |
|---|----|
| 1. The new organizational reality: transition and renewal                                 | 3  |
| Ronald J. Burke and Cary L. Cooper   |    |
| 2. The impact of organizational change on UK managers' perceptions of their working lives | 20 |
| Les Worrall, Cary Cooper, and Fiona Campbell                                       |    |
| 3. Impact of privatization in Portugal  | 44 |
| Rita Campos e Cunha  |    |
| 4. Comparing the downsizing experiences of three countries: a restructuring cycle?        | 58 |
| Craig R. Littler   |    |
| 5. Sickness absence and organizational downsizing   | 78 |
| Mika Kivimäki, Jussi Vahtera, Amanda Griffiths, Tom Cox, and Louise Thomson        |    |

Part II: New research directions 95

- |   |    |
|---|----|
| 6. An empirical examination of a stress-based framework of survivor responses to downsizing | 97 |
| Gretchen M. Spreitzer and Aneil K. Mishra  |    |

7. Gender and job insecurity Mina Westman	119
8. Ethical problems in downsizing Zehava Rosenblatt and Zachary Schaeffer	132
9. Total quality management during downsizing Marjorie Armstrong-Stassen	151
Part III: The new career reality	165
10. The new employment contract: psychological implications of future work Paul R. Sparrow	167
11. Down but not out: career trajectories of middle-aged and older workers after downsizing Daniel C. Feldman	188
12. Organizational crisis and change: the new career contract at work John F. McCarthy and Douglas T. Hall	202
13. Eroding organizational social capital among US firms: the price of job instability Carrie R. Leana and Harry J. Van Buren III	220
Part IV: Renewal and revitalization: best practices	233
14. Leading organizations through survivor sickness: a framework for the new millennium David Noer	235
15. Values-based management: a tool for managing change Todd D. Jick	251
16. Coping with mergers and acquisitions Susan Cartwright and Sarah-Louise Hudson	269
17. Organizational restructuring: identifying effective hospital downsizing processes Ronald J. Burke and Esther R. Greenglass	284
Index	304