

Table of contents

Keynote Presentation Abstracts:	5
Tracey Bretag: Enacting academic integrity – it takes courage	6
Irene Glendinning: IPPHEAE: past, present and future	7
Phil Newton: Essay mills	8
Matěj Myška: Plagiarism, Copyright Law and the Myth of Originality	9
Teddi Fishman: Shaking Things Up: When What We've Always Done has Never Worked, It May be Time to Try Something New	10
Papers—Section I: Best practices and strategies for awareness, prevention, detection of academic misconduct	11
Kim Janssens, Jose Tummers: A pilot study on students' and lecturer's perspective on plagiarism in higher professional education in Flanders .	12
Mariann Løkse, Mariann Solberg: Strengthening teacher qualifications to prevent student plagiarism – presentation of an online course and discussion of a strategy	25
David Meacheam, Denise Faifua: Perspectives on Turnitin use in an Australian setting	37
Olfat Mirza, Mike Joy: Style Analysis for Source Code Plagiarism Detection .	53
Aurelija Novelskaitė, Raminta Pučėtaitė: Addressing plagiarism through formal and informal requirements in scientific journals: empirical findings from journals published in Lithuania	62
Trudy Somers: The Learning Community as an Academic Integrity Tool or Resource	73
Jolanta Urbanovič, Nijolė Vasiljevienė, Inga Žalėnienė, Nomeda Gudėlienė: Research on Academic Integrity. The Role of Awareness of Local Environment in Developing University Anti-plagiarism Strategy	75
Christian Zimmermann: The experience of the RePEc Plagiarism Committee in economics	91
Papers—Section II: Innovation in use of e-tools and technologies for addressing plagiarism	97
Salim Razi: Reasons of plagiarism in undergraduate academic writing and benefiting from Turnitin	98
Ondřej Veselý: Results of similarity analysis of online news in Czech Republic	99
Papers—Section III: Internationalisation, student mobility and academic integrity	107
Hanas A. Cader: Students Oral Presentation Peer Evaluation: How Consistent Is It?	108
Shiva D Sivasubramaniam, Sharavan Ramachandran: A New breed of Ghost-Writers: Exploring the new threat to the academic community via Internationalisation and social media	110

Papers—Section IV: National and local responses to plagiarism	119
Lex M Bouter: Correct citation practice: an attempt to rank shades of grey in plagiarism	120
Tomáš Foltýnek, Martin Surovec: Promoting Academic Integrity Helps National Economy	121
Erja Moore: Differences in local responses to plagiarism in Finnish higher education	134
Julius Kravjar: SK ANTIPLAG Is Bearing Fruit	147
Nijolė Vasiljevienė, Agnė Juržiukonytė: The problems of legal and ethical regulation: a case study of the plagiarism lawsuit	164
Karen Weis: Plagiarism in higher professional education in Flanders: a legal perspective	180
Workshops:	213
Tony Franzky, Sabina Krämer, Kerstin E. Kohl, Ute Nunnenmacher, Ansgar Schäfer, Oliver Trevisiol: Teaching against plagiarism – proven methods and new ground	214
Wasi Khan: Plagiarism detection 2.0: detection of contract cheating	215
Alexandra Pitt, Faith Dillon-Lee: Plagiarism, Policy and People: Exploring Tensions	216
Posters:	217
Marco Cosentino, Mario Picozzi, Franca Marino: Perception and Attitudes towards Research Misconduct: A Survey in Young Biomedical Researchers in Italy	218
Universidad EAFIT: Academic Integrity Program Dare to Think	219
Tony Franzky, Kerstin E. Kohl, Sabina Krämer, Ute Nunnenmacher, Ansgar Schäfer, Oliver Trevisiol: Plagiarism Prevention Project – ReFAIRence	220
Novelskaitė Aurelija, Pužėtaitė Raminta, Lipneviž Anna, Adomaitienė Reda, Mikėnė Svajonė: Explorations of research ethics in Lithuania: the up-to-date findings and further research trends	221
Laura Ribeiro, Milton Severo, Maria Amélia Ferreira: Academic integrity in medical education: integration on the syllabus of a Humanities in Medicine course	223