

Contents

List of figures	xi
List of tables	xxi
List of contributors	xxiii
Acknowledgements	xxvii

1 Introduction: parliament buildings and the architecture of politics in Europe	1
Sophia Psarra, Uta Staiger and Claudia Sternberg

Part I: Rhythms of time and space

2 Making use of space: the unseen impact of mixing informally	35
Philip Norton
3 Rhythms of navigating time and space in the UK House of Commons	49
Emma Crewe
4 The ephemeral architecture of socioenvironmental practices in the UK Houses of Parliament, 1836–1966	63
Henrik Schoenefeldt
5 Inhabiting the Palais Bourbon together: sharing, allocating and regulating parliamentary space among its multiple users at the French National Assembly	78
Jonathan Chibois

Part II: A contemporary parliament in a historical building

- 6 Trapping the architectural imagination: restoration, renewal and denial at Westminster 93
Matthew Flinders
- 7 'It was as though a spell has been cast on them': the relationship between the Palace of Westminster and the UK Parliament 111
Alexandra Meakin
- 8 Symbolic representation in public space, and the UK Parliament's corporate identities 122
Alex Prior
- 9 The UK Parliament as a historical space for women 133
Mari Takayanagi
- 10 Parliament and the language of political agency in Disraeli's 'Young England' trilogy: a corpus linguistic approach 145
Sam Griffiths and Alexander von Lünen

Part III: The material structure of parliaments

- 11 The Palace of Westminster and the Reichstag building: spatial form and political culture 167
Sophia Psarra and Gustavo Maldonado Gil
- 12 Consensus democracy by glass and concrete? The architecture of German state parliaments 194
Patrick Theiner and Julia Schwanholz
- 13 The architecture of political representation: a historiographical review 208
Remieg Aerts and Carla Hoetink

Part IV: Political transitions and constructions of legitimacy

- 14 Architectures of power and the Romanian transition: from the House of the Republic to the Palace of the Parliament 223
Gruia Bădescu and Iulia Stătică
- 15 'Make it look more democratic, Mikhail Mikhailovich!' Potemkin parliamentarism and the project to redesign the Russian State Duma 237
Michał Murawski and Ben Noble
- 16 Absorbing Cold War heritage: from a Stalinist skyscraper to a seat of EU democracy? 250
Aneta Vasileva and Emilia Kaleva

17 Barra (Get Out)! Agency for public resistance at the Parliament of Malta	263
Andrew Borg Wirth and Michael Zerafa

Part V: Mediated parliament and digital interactions

18 Mediating politics and architecture: the European Parliament from television to the digital age	277
Pol Esteve Castelló and Dennis Pohl

19 Knife edge: Abingdon Street Gardens and its field of vision	298
James Benedict Brown

20 Continuous virtual surveillance in a new space? Monitory democracy at Westminster	311
Ben Worthy and Stefani Langehennig

Part VI: The spatial production of assemblies

21 Shaping and expressing politics: a comparative study of national parliament buildings in the European Union	325
Naomi Gibson, Sophia Psarra and Gustavo Maldonado Gil

22 From Thing to revolutionary assembly: architectural systems of gathering	347
Harald Trapp

23 Dynamics of an architectural framing, parliamentary debates and the Palace of Westminster	361
Gordana Korolija

24 Degrees of opposition and cooperation: how seating plans and parliament layouts reflect and give rise to political cultures	375
Kerstin Sailer

Part VII: Sovereignty, scale and languages of representation

25 Peripheral parliament: sovereignty, Indigenous rights and political representation in the architecture of the Sámi Parliament of Finland	391
Samuel Singler and Sofia Singler

26 Forms of parliamentarism in modern Greece and their architectural-spatial reflections: convergence, debate, imposition	407
Amalia Kotsaki

27 The opening ceremony of the Swedish Riksdag	416
Tormod Otter Johansen

Part VIII: Building parliaments for the future

Guest editor: Jeremy Melvin

28 Introduction to Part VIII Jeremy Melvin	435
29 Westminster, its Palace and the House of Commons: an outline of the House of Commons chamber and its context Jeremy Melvin	440
30 Touchstones for a twenty-first-century parliamentary building: a temporary chamber for the House of Commons, UK Paul Monaghan – Allford Hall Monaghan Morris (AHMM)	455
31 Integrating the building into the land: the Scottish Parliament Benedetta Tagliabue – Miralles Tagliabue EMBT	465
32 A continuation with history and a significant new experience: the Reichstag in Berlin David Nelson – Foster and Partners	473
33 A natural gathering place: the National Assembly for Wales – the Senedd, 1998–2004 Ivan Harbour – RSHP	483
Index	493