

Contents

Preface	page ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction: The Concept of the Natural Moral Law as a Legal Theory: Law and the Good	I
1. The Postmodern Challenge: From Modernity to Postmodernity	29
2. Traditional Natural Law: Differences in Aristotle and Aquinas	46
3. Patterns in Historical Development	65
4. The Challenge of Modernity: Religious Wars and the Need for Universal Law	91
5. The Challenges of Naturalism: Legal Realism or Natural Law?	134
6. Objectivity without a Metaphysical Foundation	171
7. Contemporary Natural Law: Practical Rationality and Legal Opinions	196
8. Natural Law as a Theory with Metaphysical Baggage: Postmodern Law	226
9. Natural Law as the Moral Law	263
Conclusion: Natural Moral Law in a Postmodern World	275
Bibliography	289
Index	295