

Contents

Notes on contributors

x

Acknowledgements

xx

PART I

1 Applied theatre: an introduction

1

NICOLA ABRAHAM

2 Lexicon

3

NICOLA ABRAHAM AND TIM PRENTKI

PART II

Poetics of representation

10

3 Introduction to poetics of representation

17

TIM PRENTKI

4 Rabelais and his world

19

MIKHAIL BAKHTIN (trans. H. ISWOLSKY)

5 Brecht on Theatre

22

MARC SILBERMAN, STEVE GILES AND TOM KUHN (EDS.)

6 Laughing and yelling in the trouble: spaces of consensual courage

28

SONIA NORRIS AND JULIE SALVERSON

7 Provoking intervention

33

ADRIAN JACKSON

8 'Lift your mask': Geese Theatre Company in performance

43

ANDY WATSON

49

9	Geographies of hope: exploring departures in applied theatre work with people living with advanced dementia	56
	MICHAEL BALFOUR AND JULIE DUNN
10	Culturally producing and negotiating women's rugby league histories through applied performance	63
	COLETTE CONROY AND SARAH JANE DICKENSON
PART III
	Ethics of representation	69
11	Introduction to ethics of representation	71
	NICOLA ABRAHAM
12	The work of representation	74
	STUART HALL
13	On the political	77
	CHANTAL MOUFFE
14	Choosing the margin as a space of radical openness	80
	BELL HOOKS
15	Drama for moral education in mainland China: tensions and possibilities	86
	JOE WINSTON AND CHENCHEN ZENG
16	'I never knew I had so many health rights' – developing a health manifesto with young people living in Hillbrow	92
	KATHARINE LOW, PHANA DUBE, GERARD BESTER AND BEN GUNN
17	Inside Bitch: Clean Break and the ethics of representation of women in the criminal justice system	100
	ANNA HERRMANN AND CAOIMHE MCAVINCHY WITH CONTRIBUTIONS FROM LUCY EDKINS, JENNIFER JOSEPH, TERRIANN OUDJAR, JADE SMALL, DEBORAH PEARSON AND STACEY GREGG
18	The ethics of aesthetic risk	108
	GARETH WHITE
19	Transition and challenge – ethical concerns in prison theatre	113
	MARIANNE NØDTVEDT KNUDSEN AND BJØRN RASMUSSEN
20	Theatre for democracy	120
	BRENDON BURNS

PART IV*Participation and inclusion

- 21 Introduction to participation and inclusion 131
NICOLA ABRAHAM
- 22 Theatre of the oppressed 134
AUGUSTO BOAL (trans. C. AND M.-O. LEAL MCBRIDE)
- 23 Selections from the prison notebooks 141
ANTONIO GRAMSCI
- 24 Participation 143
MAJID RAHNEMA
- 25 On arrival 150
SARA AHMED
- 26 Mobile Arts for Peace (MAP): curriculum for music, dance and drama in Rwanda 152
ANANDA BREED, KURTIS DENNISON, SYLVESTRE NZAHABWANAYO AND KIRRILY PELLIS
- 27 Lest all things be held unalterable: Brecht's message to 'zombie democracies' 161
MARINA HENRIQUES COUTINHO (trans. M. HERMAN)
- 28 Being imperfect: breakin' away from relating competitively in Singapore 169
ADELINA ONG
- 29 The gratitude enquiry: investigating reciprocity in three community projects 175
SUE MAYO

PART V*Intervention

- 30 Introduction to intervention 183
TIM PRENTKI
- 31 Profit over people 186
NOAM CHOMSKY

32 When people play people	193
ZAKES MDA
33 From the particular to the universal	200
DOROTHY HEATHCOTE
34 Act smart: using C&amp;T's Prospero technology to shape efficacious theatre practices in the digital century	202
PAUL SUTTON
35 Unexpected resilience of the participant performance model for playback theatre	211
JONATHAN FOX
PART VI
Border crossings	219
36 Introduction to border crossings	221
TIM PRENTKI
37 Border crossings	224
HENRY GIROUX
38 Decolonising the mind	231
NGŪGĪ WA THIONG'O
39 Home, away and back again	238
JAN COHEN-CRUZ
40 Brecht in Sicily: a dialogue between theatre and drama therapy	245
SALVO PITRUZZELLA
41 The TransActing project: why trans, non-binary and gender diverse people value spaces without cisgender people when engaging in creative practices	252
CATHERINE MCNAMARA
PART VII
Change	261
42 Introduction to change	263
NICOLA ABRAHAM
43 Problem-posing situated and multicultural learning	266
IRA SHOR

44 Synthetic culture and development	268
RENATO CONSTANTINO
45 Child rights theatre for development with disadvantaged and excluded children in South Asia and Africa	272
MICHAEL ETHEERTON
46 Opening doors, not filling boxes: policy kinesiology and youth performance with the Black Friars Theatre Company, Aotearoa New Zealand	278
MOLLY MULLEN AND MICHELLE JOHANSSON, WITH ASHLEE NIUIA, BAYLEY JOHANSSON, BILLY REVELL-SIO, CARMEL-MARIA SAVAIINAEA, FAANANAFU TOFILAU, LEONARD FOLAU, MARIA AHMAD AND VIOLA JOHANSSON
47 EducaSwitch: preventing bullying and advocating social and emotional literacy in schools for children and young people in Chile	286
NICOLA ABRAHAM AND CRISTIAN ALMARZA
48 Planting dream-seeds in the wind when the point is to change	293
SYED JAMIL AHMED
PART VIII
Applied theatre and globalisation	301
49 Applied theatre in global meltdown	303
TIM PRENTKI
Recommended further reading by part	309
Index	313