

Contents

Part I A Life in Law and Politics
1 The Cosmopolitan Local	3
Neil Walker
Part II The Seven Big Themes in MacCormick’s Legal and Political Theory
2 MacCormick on MacCormick	17
Neil MacCormick
Part III The Limits of Law
3 Juridification from Below: The Dynamics of MacCormick’s Institutional Theory of Law	27
Lars Christian Blichner
4 Reform and Tradition: Changes and Continuities in Neil MacCormick’s Concept of Law	55
Massimo La Torre
5 The Master Rule, Normativity, and the Institutional Theory of Law	69
Stefano Bertea
Part IV Jurisprudence
6 Some Reflections on the Relationship Between Law and Morality – Neil MacCormick’s Point of View	95
Marina Lalatta Costerbosa
7 Legal Judgment and Moral Reservation	107
Jeremy Waldron
8 Are We Beyond Sovereignty? The Sovereignty of Processes and the Democratic Legitimacy of the European Union	133
Tanja Hitzel-Cassagnes

Part V Legal Argumentation

9 Coherence and Post-sovereign Legal Argumentation 159
 Flavia Carbonell

Part VI The Constitution(s) of the European Union

10 Legal Pluralism in the European Union 185
 Martin Borowski

11 From Constitutional Pluralism to a Pluralistic
 Constitution? Constitutional Synthesis as a MacCormickian
 Constitutional Theory of European Integration 211
 Agustín José Menéndez

Part VII Post-sovereign Nationalism

12 Nation-States vs. Nation-Regions in the Post-sovereign European Polity 245
 Joxerramon Bengoetxea

13 Nationalism, Patriotism and Diversity – Conceptualising
 the National Dimension in Neil MacCormick’s
 Post-sovereign Constellation 261
 John Erik Fossum

Index 287