

CONTENTS

Preface	v
Acknowledgments	xvii
Table of Cases	xxv
Table of Statutes	xlii
Table of Statutory Instruments	xlvi

1. CRIME AND PUNISHMENT 1

I PUNISHMENT 1

A. Introduction	1
B. "Theories" of Punishment	2
1. Retribution	2
2. Deterrence	14
3. Incapacitation	24
4. Rehabilitation	35
C. Distinguishing Justification of Punishment from Purpose of Punishment	43
D. How Severely do we Punish?	51
E. Sentencing Disparity	55
F. Sentences	74

II WHAT CONDUCT OUGHT TO BE CRIMINAL? 77

A. Introduction	77
B. Immorality as a Necessary Condition	78
C. Immorality as a Sufficient Condition	80
D. Harm	83
E. Conclusion	95

III THE PRINCIPLE OF LEGALITY 95

2. THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF CRIMINAL LIABILITY 100

I INTRODUCTION 100

II ACTUS REUS 103

A. Introduction	103
B. Constituent Elements of Actus Reus	104
C. The Act must be Voluntary	106
D. Status Offences	119
E. Omissions	126
1. Form of duty to act	127
2. Performance of duty	134
3. Distinguishing positive acts from omissions	135
4. A general duty to act?	136
5. Punishment of omissions	147

III MENS REA	147
A. Introduction	147
1. Historical development	147
2. The concept of responsibility	149
B. What is Mens Rea ?	150
1. Intention	153
2. Recklessness	175
3. Negligence	199
C. Strict Liability	215
1. Introduction	215
2. Should strict liability be a basis for liability?	216
3. The law	224
4. Defences to strict liability	229
D. Dispensing with Mens Rea	233
1. The problem of proof	234
2. Philosophical objections	238
IV RELATIONSHIP OF MENS REA TO ACTUS REUS	246
A. Introduction	246
B. Coincidence of Actus Reus and Mens Rea	246
1. The problem	246
2. The solution	247
C. Transferred Malice	249
1. Background	249
2. The problem	250
3. The solution	250
D. Mistake	252
1. Mistake as to element of actus reus	252
2. Mistake as to a defence element	264
3. Mistake as to law	268
3. GENERAL DEFENCES	273
I JUSTIFICATION AND EXCUSE	273
A. Introduction	273
B. Justification	275
C. Excuses	277
D. Significance of distinction between justification and excuse	280
II THE DEFENCES	283
A. Consent	283
1. Introduction	283
2. The reality of consent	285
3. The nature and degree of the harm	287
4. The rationale of consent as a defence	291
B. Necessary Defence	292
1. Introduction	292

2. The triggering conditions	293
3. The permitted response	294
C. Discipline	308
D. Duress	308
1. Introduction	308
2. Should duress be a defence?	309
3. Parameters of the defence	313
E. Necessity	329
1. Introduction	329
2. Should necessity be a defence?	329
3. The law's response	335
F. Superior Orders	341
G. Insanity	345
1. Introduction	345
2. The law	349
3. Should the insanity defence be retained?	362
H. Diminished Responsibility	370
1. Introduction	370
2. The problem	371
3. The solution	371
4. Should the partial defence of diminished responsibility be retained?	375
I. Intoxication	376
1. Introduction	376
2. Meaning of voluntary intoxication	377
3. Law on involuntary intoxication	378
4. Involuntary intoxication	394
5. "Dutch courage" intoxication	394
6. Intoxication can cause insanity	395
J. Lack of Age	397
1. Introduction	397
2. Below the age of 10	398
3. Above the age of 10	398
K. Sundry Defences	399
1. Introduction	399
2. Entrapment	399

4. CAUSATION 401

I INTRODUCTION 401

II APPROACHES TO CAUSATION 406

A. "Policy" Approach 407

B. Mens Rea Approach 407

C. Quest for General Principles 408

1. Hart and Honoré's principles of causation 409

2. The Model Penal Code 411

III THE LAW'S RESPONSE	413
A. Operative Cause	413
1. Positive aspect	413
2. Negative aspect	417
B. Condition of Victim	424
1. Physical condition	424
2. Religious condition	424
3. Psychological condition	425
IV EVALUATION	426
A. The "Policy" View	426
B. Mens Rea Limits the Chain of Causation	427
C. Principles of Causation	427
1. Hart and Honoré	427
2. Model Penal Code's principles of causation	430
3. Draft Criminal Code Bill	430
5. INCHOATE OFFENCES	432
I INTRODUCTION	432
II ATTEMPT	433
A. Criminology of Attempts	433
B. Should there be a Law of Attempt?	433
C. Punishment of Attempts	436
D. The Law	445
1. Mens rea	445
2. Actus reus	453
III CONSPIRACY	480
A. Introduction	480
B. Should there be a Law of Conspiracy?	481
C. Punishment of Conspiracies	483
D. The Law	484
1. Types of conspiracy	484
2. Definition of statutory conspiracy	485
IV INCITEMENT	492
A. Introduction	492
B. Rationale and Punishment of Incitement	493
C. The Law	494
1. Actus reus	494
2. Mens rea	494
3. Draft Criminal Code	495
4. Impossibility	495
V PRECURSOR OFFENCES	497

6. PARTIES TO CRIME	501
I INTRODUCTION	501
II THE TYPES OF ACCOMPLICES	501
A. Principal Offenders	502
B. Secondary Parties	502
1. Aiding and abetting	503
2. Counselling	506
3. Procuring	507
4. The Draft Criminal Code	509
5. The mens rea of secondary parties	510
III THE LIMITS OF ACCESSORIAL LIABILITY	519
A. No Principal Offender	519
B. Accessory can be Guilty of Graver Offence than the One Committed	524
C. Repentance of Accessories	526
D. Victims cannot be Accessories	528
E. Accomplices and Transferred Malice	529
IV A NEW APPROACH	531
1. Blameworthiness	533
2. Causing harm	533
3. Lesser liability and punishment	535
7. NON-FATAL OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON	538
I OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON (NON-SEXUAL)	538
A. Introduction	538
1. The level of offending	538
2. Violence in context	540
B. The Law	542
1. Introduction	542
2. Common assault (assault and battery)	542
3. The statutory offences	548
C. Evaluation	558
II RAPE	562
A. Sociological Context	563
1. The level of offending	563
2. Rape in context	564
3. Sentencing	566
B. The Law	567
1. Actus reus	567
2. Mens rea	574
C. Evaluation	579

8. HOMICIDE	582
I INTRODUCTION	582
A. The Level of Offending	582
B. Homicide in Context	582
II ACTUS REUS OF MURDER AND MANSLAUGHTER	584
III MURDER	586
A. History	586
1. Intent to kill	586
2. Intent to cause grievous bodily harm	587
3. Constructive malice	587
B. Present Law	589
C. Penalty for Murder	590
D. Evaluation	595
1. The grievous bodily harm rule	595
2. Maloney/Hancock test of intention	598
3. Conclusion	605
IV MANSLAUGHTER	606
A. Involuntary Manslaughter	606
1. Reckless manslaughter	607
2. Constructive manslaughter	613
3. Rationale and reform	622
B. Causing Death by Reckless Driving	626
1. Introduction	626
2. Reckless driving	627
3. When manslaughter	629
4. Rationale and reform of the law	633
C. Voluntary Manslaughter	638
1. Provocation	638
2. Diminished responsibility	655
3. Killing in pursuance of a suicide pact	655
V INFANTICIDE	657
VI THE STRUCTURE OF HOMICIDE OFFENCES	660
A. Rationale of Distinction between Different Categories of Homicide	660
B. Great Specificity	662
C. Basis of Distinctions	665
D. Unlawful Homicide—a Single Offence	668
9. OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY	674
I INTRODUCTION	674
A. The Level of Offending	674
B. The Sociological Background	677
C. The Legal Background	681

II THEFT	684
A. The Sociological Background	684
B. The Legal Background	685
C. The Law	686
1. Definition	686
2. Appropriation	686
3. Property	703
4. Belonging to another	706
5. Dishonesty	725
6. Intention of permanent deprivation	733
III OFFENCES INVOLVING DECEPTION	740
A. The Sociological Background	740
B. The Legal Background	741
C. The Law	743
1. Common element	743
2. The offences	762
IV MAKING OFF WITHOUT PAYMENT	772
A. Introduction	772
B. The Law	773
1. Makes off	774
2. The spot	774
3. Goods supplied or service done	774
4. Without having paid	774
5. As required or expected	775
6. Mens rea	776
7. Punishment	776
V OTHER PROPERTY OFFENCES	776
A. Sociological Background	776
B. The Legal Background	778
C. The Law	779
1. Robbery	779
2. Burglary and aggravated burglary	780
3. Handling stolen goods	784
VI CONCLUSION	786
A. Underlying Rationale	787
B. Structure of Property Offences	789
10. TOWARDS A GENERAL THEORY OF CRIMINAL LAW	795
I BLAME	795
II HARM	798
III CAUSATION	799
IV A NECESSARY EQUATION	800
A. Blame	800
B. Harm	801

V THE BASIC EQUATION	805
1. Levels of blame	805
2. Levels of harm	805
3. Conjunction of elements	806
VI SUBSTANTIVE LAW OR SENTENCING?	807
VII CONCLUSION	810
Index	811