

CONTENTS

- 1 – An introduction to the specific regulatory environment of sports
11
- 2 – The system of justice within sports autonomy designed by the ICAS/IFs:
The World Supreme Court of Sports (CAS)
31
- 3 – Economic freedoms and human rights vs. sports autonomy in forums outside the sports sector
57
- 4 – Modern Slavery
75
- 5 – Does compulsory labor exist in the private sphere of sports?
99
- 6 – The conflict of interest of IFs and sanctions of ineligibility for the participation of athletes/clubs at unauthorized events outside the official calendar of IFs
109
- 7 – EU law of subsidies: an additional limit to the power of sports governing bodies
121
- 8 – The fight against doping: if the forest is cut down, splinters are flying?
129
- 9 – Freedom of expression vs. the 'best interest of IFs'
153
- Concluding remarks
159
- Bibliography
163
- Online sources
170