

Contents

Preface	F. Mehran	ix
Notes on contributors		xi
Introduction	I. Chernyshev	1
PART I: MAJOR CHALLENGES IN LABOUR STATISTICS
1.	Labour force, employment and unemployment	9
2.	Wage and labour cost	13
3.	Classification of occupations	17
4.	Measuring employment trends, labour shortages and skill gaps in transition countries E. Hoffmann and I. Chernyshev	21
5.	Revision of labour statistics systems in the countries of the Commonwealth of Independent States in the light of the ILO international recommendations I. Chernyshev, V. Gouriev and I. Manykina	35
6.	Some aspects of labour analysis in the CIS countries I. Manykina	47
7.	Towards a strategy of reform for systems of pay classification in countries in Central and Eastern Europe J. Kux	59

iv Contents

8. Hungarian labour statistics in transition 69
A. Keleti

PART II: LABOUR FORCE, EMPLOYMENT AND UNEMPLOYMENT

9. International standards on the measurement of economic activity, employment, unemployment and underemployment 77
R. Hussmanns
10. Statistical study of employment and unemployment in the Republic of Belarus 107
K. Kiseleva
11. The Labour Force Survey in Czechoslovakia 111
B. Mejstřík and J. Kux
12. The Hungarian Labour Force Survey, 1992: Reference Manual 119
Hungarian Central Statistical Office
13. The Polish Labour Force Survey 125
J. Witkowski
14. The Labour Force Survey: a means of statistical investigation of the Romanian labour market 135
I. Vantu
15. The guidelines for the transition of Russian Federation statistics for the study of employment and unemployment through Labour Force Surveys 143
T. Gorbacheva

PART III: WAGE AND LABOUR COST

16. International standards of wage statistics: summary 151
R. Rassou
17. Establishment surveys: a review of national practices 155
M-T. Dupré
18. Wage-fixing policy: consequences of wage data gathering 165
F. Eyraud
19. Wage and labour cost statistics in Czechoslovakia 179
J. Kux
20. The Hungarian Labour Cost Survey 183
Hungarian Central Statistical Office