

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Preface	ix
1 Introduction to The Politics of European Legal Research Marija Bartl, Pola Cebulak and Jessica C. Lawrence	1
PART I THE POLITICS OF QUESTIONS
2 Governmentality as reflexive method: excavating the politics of legal research Jessica C. Lawrence	15
3 On politics and feminist legal method in legal academia Lyn K.L. Tjon Soei Len	31
4 The politics of method in the field of labour law Ruth Dukes	45
5 Boundary-work and dynamics of exclusion by law: international investment law as a case study Alessandra Arcuri	60
PART II THE POLITICS OF ANSWERS
6 Statistics as if legality mattered: the two-front politics of empirical legal studies Tommaso Pavone and Juan Mayoral	78
7 Sociological institutionalism as a lens to study judicialization: a bridge between legal scholarship and political science Julien Bois and Mark Dawson	94
8 Politics of coding: on systematic content analysis of legal text Or Brook	109

- 9 Taming law: the risks of making doctrinal analysis the servant of empirical research 124
Gareth Davies

PART III THE POLITICS OF AUDIENCES

- 10 The politics of interdisciplinarity in law 140
Irina Domurath
- 11 The politics of legal education 159
Marija Bartl and Candida Leone
- 12 Comparative administrative law in the EU: the integration function and its limits 177
Joana Mendes

PART IV THE POLITICS OF THE CONCEPT OF LAW

- 13 A timid defence of legal formalism 192
Christina Eckes
- 14 How to study worlds: or why one should (not) care about methodology 208
Poul F. Kjaer
- 15 The measuring of the law through EU politics 223
Hans-W. Micklitz
- 16 Telos of a method 239
Siniša Rodin
- 17 Conclusion: an emergent alliance for 'critical doctrine' 254
Marija Bartl, Pola Cebulak and Jessica C. Lawrence
- Index* 262