

Table of Contents

Forewords by M.R. Chakrarot Chitrabongs	4
Foreword by H.E. Ph. Dr. Jiří Šitler the Ambassador of the Czech Republic to Thailand	8
I. The Beginnings of the Czech-Siamese Relationship
Missions of God: Siam and the Czech Jesuit Missionaries	13
Times of Travellers: The Czech lands and Siam during the era of the Austro-Hungarian Empire (until 1918)	22
II. Between Two World Wars:
Siam and Czechoslovakia 1918 – 1938	57
The King of Siam in Czechoslovakia	57
The Motor Racing Prince of Siam in Czechoslovakia	81
Economic Relations Across the Oceans	86
III. War Intermezzo: Was Siam at War with Czechoslovakia?	89
IV. Thailand and Czechoslovakia after
World War II. (1945 – 1989)	92
The Broken Tradition of Diplomatic and Cultural Relations ...	92
Prince Bira's Car Accident on the Racing Track in Brno	93
Diplomatic Vacuum	96
Thai MPs in Communist Czechoslovakia	97
The Establishment of Diplomatic Relations in 1974	105
The Czech Emigrant Community in Thailand	108
Czechoslovakia Contributes to the industrialisation of Thailand	110
V. A New Era of Friendship:
The Development of Contacts after 1989	117
Governmental, parliamentary and diplomatic relations refreshed	117
The Czech President visits Thailand	121
Members of the Thai Royal Family Enjoy the Czech Republic	130
Important Partners in Commercial and Economic Cooperation	139
VI. Bibliography	158
VII. List of sponsors	168

