

contents

List of Tables and Charts	vi
Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction	1
The Book in Outline	2
Part I HISTORY AND THEORY
1 The Development of Juvenile Justice	8
Early Nineteenth-century Developments	10
Poor or Criminal?	12
Reformatories and Industrial Schools	13
The Reality of Life in the Schools	16
The Juvenile Court	18
Judicial Therapists	20
Gendered Approaches	22
Police, Law and Juvenile Delinquency	22
Conclusion	25
2 Traditional Criminological Theory	28
Gaining Perspective	29
Classical Theory and the Criminal Act	33
Positivism and the Criminal Offender	36
Conclusion	44
3 Mainstream Perspectives in Juvenile Justice	46
Strain Theories	46
Labelling Theory	57
Republican Theory	62
Conclusion	66

4 Challenges to Criminological Orthodoxies	68
Marxist Criminology	68
Feminist Criminology	75
New Right Criminology	82
Left Realism	87
Conclusion	90

Part II THE DYNAMICS OF JUVENILE JUSTICE

5 The Nature of Contemporary Juvenile Crime	94
Extent	94
Social Dimensions	104
Explanations	110
Representations	111
Young People as Victims of Crime	114
Conclusion	115
6 Class and Community	116
A Political Economy of Crime	117
Social Institutions and Youth Alienation	125
Managing a Youth 'Underclass'	128
Crime and Community	131
Conclusion	134
7 Indigenous Young People	135
History and Culture	136
Protection Legislation	138
Welfare to Criminalisation	140
Characteristic Offences	142
Police Decision-making	145
Court Decision-making	148
Accumulating a Criminal Record	150
Responses	152
Conclusion	153
8 Young Women and the Role of Gender	155
Early Feminist Research on Young Women	156
Challenging Essentialism	162
Girls in the Juvenile Justice System	164
Developing Programs for Young Women in Custody	168
Gender Relations and Masculinity	170
Conclusion	173

Part III THE STATE, PUNISHMENT AND CRIME PREVENTION

9 The Institutions of Juvenile Justice	176
The Legislative Framework	177
The Key Players	181
Accountability and Regulation	185
The Principles of Juvenile Justice	189
The Effects of the System	193
Conclusion	196
10 Policing the Young	198
Roles	198
Practices and Images	201
Powers and Methods	203
Contact with Youth on the Street	206
Community Policing	209
The Context of Reform	212
Conclusion	215
11 Courts and the Sentencing Process	217
The Jurisdiction of the Children's Court	217
Children's Courts and Decision-making	220
The Utilisation of Sentencing Options	227
Young People's Experience of the Children's Court	227
The Use of Detention	229
Serious Offenders and Repeat Offenders	231
The Rationale for Detention	233
Detention Centres	236
Conclusion	238
12 Diversion, Community Programs and Informalism	240
Preventive Intervention	241
Diversion from Formal Adjudication	246
Community Corrections and Post-release Programs	253
Conclusion	259
Conclusion	261
Nature of State Intervention	261
Methodological and Research Issues	264
Youth Rights	266
Bibliography	269
Index	286