

CONTENTS

PREFACE	v
TABLE OF CASES	xiii
TABLE OF STATUTES	xix
TABLE OF STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS	xxvii
TABLE OF FORMS	xxxi
TABLE OF ABBREVIATIONS	xxxiii
 CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION – HOW TO USE THIS BOOK	 1
Step One: Is the victim ‘associated’?	2
Cohabitation	2
Household	4
‘Relative’	5
Engaged couples	6
Non-cohabiting couples [prospective change]	7
Family proceedings	8
Checklist	9
Step Two: Is the victim ‘entitled’	10
Quick checklist	13
General note as to procedure and jurisdiction	15
Applications under Part IV of FLA 1996 may be
‘free-standing’ or made within family proceedings	15
Concurrent jurisdiction	15
Orders under the FLA 1996 and injunctions are granted to protect a legal right	16
Jurisdiction of county courts and family proceedings courts	16
Injunction powers of the High Court under the Supreme Court Act 1981
and of county courts under the County Courts Act 1984	17
Injunctions for protection under the PHA 1997 and under the general law of torts	18

CHAPTER 2 NON-MOLESTATION ORDERS UNDER THE FAMILY LAW ACT 1996	19
The law	19
What is 'molestation'?	19
Who may apply for non-molestation orders?	20
Is the applicant eligible (being associated with the proposed respondent) for a non-molestation order?	20
Exclusion orders in respect of a defined area around a home or place of work	21
Own motion non-molestation orders	21
Duration of non-molestation orders	22
Power of arrest	22
Procedure	23
CHAPTER 3 OCCUPATION ORDERS	25
Introduction	25
If the client is an associated person with proposed respondent, is the client eligible for an occupation order (or for a non-molestation order under s 42)?	25
Expiration of s 30 matrimonial home rights on death or divorce	25
What criteria apply for the grant of an occupation order?	26
Types of occupation orders in detail	29
Section 33 orders	29
Section 35 orders	32
Section 36 orders	35
Section 37 orders	39
Section 38 orders	40
Penal notice incorporated in an occupation order	41
Power of arrest attached to occupation order	41
Forms of order	42
Supplementary orders providing for maintenance, repair, mortgage or rent payments and care and use of furniture, available for orders under s 33, s 35 or s 36	42
Suggested draft order/checklist in Part IV of the Family Law Act 1996	43
Procedure	47
CHAPTER 4 PROTECTION FROM HARASSMENT ACT 1997	49
Introduction	49
The offences	49
Criminal penalties	50
Civil remedies	50
No general remedy for invasion of privacy	51
Factual basis of an actual or threatened tort needed for grant of an injunction	52
Orders to exclude the defendant from an area surrounding the plaintiff's home and place or work	52

Harassment under PHA 1997	53
The ingredients of and civil remedies against the statutory tort of harassment	53
Definition of 'harassment'	54
Threatened repetition of a single harassing act	55
Justifiable harassment	55
Harassment amounting to nuisance	56
Harassment at the plaintiff's place of work: interference with a contract of employment	57
Personal injury by molestation	58
Trespass	58
Removal of an obstreperous adult from the family home	58
Warrant for arrest for breach of injunction forbidding harassment	59
Availability of warrant	59
Specimen clauses for forbidding tortious personal molestation	59
Menu for specimen clauses for molestation injunctions in torts	60
Duration of injunction against, or undertaking about, torts	60
Procedure	60
Enforcement	62
Criminal penalty for breach of injunction	62
Limitation	63
Comparison of the PHA 1997 and Part IV of the FLA 1996	63
Availability of remedy	63
Entitlement to apply	64
Nature of remedy	64
Undertakings	64
Enforcement	65
Choice of court	65
Combined applications	65

CHAPTER 5 PROCEDURES FOR PERSONAL PROTECTION ORDERS 67

Applications for personal protection orders and injunctions	67
Family proceedings court or county court? Choice of venue when starting proceedings under FLA 1996, Part IV	67
Transfer of proceedings between courts	68
Standard form of application for non-molestation or occupation order	69
Evidence in support required for application for FLA 1996, Part IV order or injunction against torts	70
General requirements appropriate for evidence in support of application	70
Special requirement where application begun without notice	70
Special requirement for permission for child under the age of 16 to apply for a non-molestation or occupation order	71
Special requirement where applicant relies on agreement to marry	71
Applications without notice, informal notice and abridged and substituted service	71
The power to grant an initial order without notice	71
Criteria for applications without notice	72

Case-law on the policy	73
When may an occupation order which ousts the respondent from his home be made without notice?	75
Mode of application begun without notice	75
Grounds for application without notice required to be set out in statement in support	75
Ensuring issue and service of correct forms after grant of order without notice	75
'Informal' notice	76
Return date for hearing on notice where order granted without notice	76
Abridged time for service	76
Substituted service	77
Evidence in support of without notice (ex parte) applications	77
Conduct of hearing	78
Procedure: evidence	78
Announcement of a power of arrest granted without notice	78
Forms of orders	78
Service or notification of orders required to make orders enforceable	79
Undertakings: availability	79
Undertakings: practice and the Prescribed Forms	80
Delivery of a form of undertaking	80
Interlocutory injunctions, free-standing injunctions and declaratory orders, in county court actions	81
Power to grant and enforce an injunction against a person aged at least 18 and less than 21	82
Power to grant and enforce an injunction against a person aged less than 18	82
Power to enforce an injunction against a person who is mentally disordered	82
Suitability of injunction as remedy against person aged less than 18 or mentally disordered	82
Procedure where the defendant is a minor or mental patient	83
CHAPTER 6 TRANSFER OF TENANCIES	85
Introduction	85
Applicants for transfer of tenancy	86
Spouses	87
Cohabitants	88
Principles to be applied	88
Orders which may be made	90
Protected tenancy, secure tenancy, assured tenancy, assured agricultural occupancy	91
Statutory tenancy within the meaning of the Rent Act 1977	92
Statutory tenancy within the meaning of the Rent (Agriculture) Act 1976	93
Supplementary provisions	93
Rights of landlords	94
Date when order takes effect	94

Procedure	95
Issue and application	95
Respondent contesting	95
Interlocutory orders	95
Service on landlords	95
CHAPTER 7 ENFORCEMENT	97
Enforcement procedures	97
Changes introduced by DVCVA 2004	97
General principle	101
Disobedience of an order as a contempt of court	101
Orders not capable of enforcement by committal	101
Alternatives to applications for committal	102
Application for committal of a person aged less than 18 or who is a mental patient	102
Enforcement powers common to all courts	103
Additional enforcement powers of the High Court and county courts	103
Magistrates' enforcement powers and practice	103
Procedure	104
Introduction – The importance of abiding by correct procedure	104
Penal or warning notice on orders capable of enforcement by committal	105
Forms, rules and Practice Direction	106
Service or notification of orders required to make orders enforceable	107
Delivery of a form of undertaking	108
Contempt proceedings where criminal prosecution under way	108
Contempt proceedings for harassment where criminal charges pending or contemnor convicted	109
Issue and service of the 'Notice to Show Good Reason' and evidence in support	109
Dispensation with service of 'Notice to Show Good Reason': committal without notice or waiving formality of service	111
Drafting the 'Notice to Show Good Reason' and affidavit or statement in support	111
Arrest under power of arrest attached to a non-molestation or occupation order under FLA 1996, s 47	112
Arrest under warrant of arrest for breach of an occupation order or an undertaking to like effect	112
Power of the court	113
Procedural powers of court when arrested person brought before court under FLA 1996, s 47	113
Bail under the FLA 1996	114
Warrant of arrest for breach of an injunction under the PHA 1997	114
Further arrest where the respondent fails to appear at an adjourned hearing after being released following arrest under a power of arrest	115

Warrant of arrest where the respondent fails to appear at an adjourned hearing, having appeared at the first hearing of a Notice to Show Good Reason, under FLA 1996, Part IV	116
Application by contemnor or respondent who objects to an injunctive order	116
Committal hearings	117
Application to purge contempt	120
Warrant of possession for enforcing an occupation order requiring the respondent to vacate the family home	120
Applications for committal orders: checklists	121
 APPENDIX 1 STATUTES	 133
Children Act 1989, ss 38A, 38B, 39, 44A, 44B, 45	135
Family Law Act 1996, Parts IV, V, Schs 4, 5, 7, 9	143
Protection from Harassment Act 1997	203
 APPENDIX 2 STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS	 213
Civil Procedure Rules 1998, SI 1998/3132, Sch 1	215
Family Proceedings Rules 1991, SI 1991/1247, regs 3.8–3.10, 4.24A, 8.1A	223
Family Proceedings (Amendment No []) 2005 (draft)	233
Family Proceedings Courts (Matrimonial Proceedings etc) Rules 1991, SI 1991/1991, regs 3A, 12A, 12B, 20, 21	235
Family Proceedings Courts (Matrimonial Proceedings etc) (Amendment) Rules 2005 (draft)	245
Family Law Act 1996 (Part IV) (Allocation of Proceedings) Order 1997, SI 1997/1896	247
 APPENDIX 3 FORMS	 253
Form FL401 – Application for a non-molestation order/an occupation order	255
Form FL401 – Application for a non-molestation order/an occupation order (draft)	265
Form FL404 – Order or Direction	275
Form FL404 – Order or Direction (draft)	283
Form FL404a – Non-molestation order (draft)	285
Form FL406a – Record of non-molestation order (draft)	287
 INDEX	 289