

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction Ernesto U. Savona	ix
Notes on Contributors	xv
Part I — Trends and Implications
1. The Problem and its Diverse Dimensions Lamberto Dini	3
2. International Money Laundering Trends and Prevention/Control Policies Ernesto U. Savona and Michael A. De Feo	9
3. Money Laundering and Measuring Illegal Activity: an Economic Analysis Andrew Hughes Hallett	71
4. Macroeconomic Implications of Money Laundering Vito Tanzi	91
Part II — Tuning the Instruments
5. International and National Responses to the Globalization of Money Laundering M. Cherif Bassiouni and David S. Gualtieri	107

6.	Investigating and Prosecuting the Proceeds of Crime: A Common Law Experience	189
	John L. Evans
7.	Investigating and Prosecuting the Proceeds of Crime: A Civil Law Experience	215
	Giuliano Turone
8.	Obstacles in Controlling Money Laundering Crimes	249
	Paolo Bernasconi
9.	Money Laundering and Regulatory Policies	259
	Michael Levi
10.	Regulatory Strategy and International Corporate Controls	283
	Brent Fisse
	Afterword	307
	Giorgio Giacomelli
	Index	311